31. It shall be the duty of the Committee on Engrossment and Enrollment to compare all bills, constitutional amendments, and concurrent and joint resolutions, ordered or considered engrossed by this House with the engrossed copies thereof; and, before they pass out of the possession of this House, see that the engrossed bill is a true copy of the original, with such amendments as may have been made thereto; and said committee shall see that all engrossed bills are reported back in the order in which they were ordered engrossed.

Bills committed to a Committee of the Whole House shall, in Committee of the Whole, be read by sections. All amendments shall be noted and reported to the Assembly by the chairman. After being reported to the Assembly, the bill shall again be subject to amendment before a vote on the report is taken.

Rules in Committee of the Whole.

34. The rules of the Assembly shall be observed in Committees of the Whole, as far as may be applicable, except limiting the time of speaking, and except that the ayes and noes need not be taken unless demanded.

The Committee of the Whole House.

A Standing Committee.

A Select Committee.

Calling Members to Order When Transgressing Rules.

37. If any member, in speaking or otherwise, transgresses the rules of the House, the Speaker shall, or any member may, call to order; in which case the member so called to order shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain; and if called to order by a member, such member shall immediately state the point of order. If the point of order be sustained by the Chair, the member shall not be allowed to proceed; but if it be not sustained, then he shall be permitted to go on. Every such decision from the Chair shall be subject to an appeal to the House, but no discussion of a question of order shall be allowed, unless an appeal be taken from the decision of the Chair.

Speaker To Decide Who Is Entitled to the Floor.

38. When two or more members shall rise at once, the Speaker shall name the member who is first to speak.

Order in Speaking to Questions.

39. Every member, when he speaks, shall, standing in his place, address "Mr. Speaker," and when he has finished he shall sit down. No member shall speak more than twice during the consideration of any one question, of whatever nature, on the same day and at the same stage of proceedings without leave being granted, except the author of a bill or resolution, or mover of a question, who shall have the right to close the debate. No member shall be allowed to speak more than fifteen minutes upon any question except by leave of the House, and except further, the author shall be allowed fifteen minutes to open and fifteen minutes to close.

Called to Order for Offensive Words in Debate.

40. If any member be called to order for offensive words spoken in debate, the person calling him to order shall report the words excepted to, and they shall be taken down in writing at the Clerk's table, and no member shall be held to answer, or be subject to censure of the House, for language used in debate, if any member has spoken or other business has intervened after the words spoken and before exception to them shall have been taken.

42. No motion shall be debated until the same be seconded and distinctly announced by the Speaker; and it shall be reduced to writing, if desired by the Speaker, or any member, and be read by the Clerk, before the same shall be debated. A motion may be withdrawn, by leave of the House, at any time before amendment or decision.

43. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, except during roll call. The Clerk shall enter on the Journal the name of any member moving an adjournment, also the hour at which the motion was made and adjournment taken.

When a motion is made and seconded to adjourn, it shall be in order for the Speaker, before putting the question, to permit any member to state any fact to the House relating to the condition of the business of the House which would seem to render it improper to adjourn at that time. Such statement, however, shall not be debatable, and such statement or statements shall not in any case occupy more than two minutes.

Concurrent resolutions for adjournment sine die shall in all cases, whether originating in the House or coming from the Senate, be referred to the Committee on Ways and Means. A motion to strike out the enacting clause of a bill shall have preference over a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be considered equivalent to its rejection. A dilatory motion shall not be considered intervening business within the meaning of parliamentary usage.

Previous Question.

45 The previous question shall be in this form: "Shall the main question be now put?" And its effect, when sustained by a majority of the members present, shall be to put an end to all debate and bring the House to a vote on the question or questions before it.

Question Indefinitely Postponed

48 When a question is postponed indefinitely, the same shall not again be introduced during the session.

Division of Questions

49 Any member may call for a division of the question, which shall be divided if it comprehend propositions in substance so distinct that, one being taken away, a substantive proposition shall remain for the decision of the House. A motion to strike out being lost, shall preclude neither a motion to add to nor a motion to strike out and insert.

Substitute

50 A motion to substitute shall be deemed and held to be a motion to amend, and be treated in all respects as such.

Subjects Different From the One Under Consideration

51 No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted as an amendment.

55 In filling up blanks the least sum and shortest time shall be put first.

Priority of Business

56 All questions relating to the priority of business shall be decided without debate.

Reading of Papers.

57 When the reading of a paper is called for, except petitions, and the same is objected to by a member, such reading shall be determined by a vote of the House, without debate.

Notice of Reconsideration

58 On the day succeeding that on which a final vote on any bill or resolution has been taken said vote may be reconsidered on the motion of any member; provided, a notice of intention to move such reconsideration shall have been given on the day on which such final vote was taken, by a member voting with the majority; and it shall not be in order for any member to move a reconsideration on the day on which such final vote was taken. Said motion of reconsideration shall have precedence over every other motion, except a motion to adjourn. No notice of reconsideration shall be in order on the day preceding the last day of the session. No motion to reconsider shall be adopted, except upon a roll call, and it shall require forty-one votes to adopt the motion.

Election by House.

59 In all cases of election by the House, the vote shall be taken una voce.

Calling Ayes and Noes.

60 The ayes and noes shall be taken on the final passage of all bills, and when called for by three members on other questions, and every member within the bar of the House, when his name is called, shall (unless for special reasons he be excused) declare openly, and without debate, his vote. The door shall then be shut, and those for whom no excuse or insufficient excuses are made, may, by order of those present, be taken into custody, as they appear, or may be sent for and taken into custody by the Serjeant-at-Arms wherever found, or by special messenger to be appointed for that purpose. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the members present may order a call of the House and compel the attendance of absentees in the manner above provided. No recess can be taken during a call of the House.

Suspending and Changing Rules

66 No standing rule or order of the House shall be rescinded or changed without a vote of two thirds of the members of the Assembly, and one day's notice being given of the motion therefor, provided, that the Committee on Rules may at any time, except during a roll call, report a temporary rule providing for the consideration of any bill on the files of the House belonging to either of the following classes:

1 Bills affecting the state government, its revenue, its various departments or commissions, or appropriations therefor

3 Bills affecting town, city, city and county governments, or the municipal affairs of the same.

4. Bills amending election or primary election laws

5. Constitutional amendments

6 Bills amending or repealing the Codes, or sections thereof

It shall always be in order to call up for consideration such report. The same shall be subject to amendments by the House.

A rule of order may be suspended temporarily by a vote of two thirds of the members present, except that portion of Rule 6 relating to third reading of bills. A motion or resolution proposing to increase or diminish a standing committee shall not be adopted until the same has been referred to the Committee on Rules.

The Committee on Rules may also, at any time, report a temporary rule or regulation. When such temporary rule or regulation shall have been adopted by a two thirds vote of the House it shall have the effect, for the time being, of a standing rule, and if such temporary rule shall be in conflict with a standing rule it shall supersede said standing rule for the time being and shall be enforced by the Speaker.

Members Absenting Themselves

67. No member shall absent himself from attendance at a session of the House without the leave of the House, except in case of sickness; and if any member or officer of the House absent himself without leave, his per diem shall not be allowed him, but no member shall obtain leave of absence, or be excused, without a vote of two thirds of the House, or by unanimous consent.

The committee shall examine bills referred to it with particular reference to the question as to whether there is already any bill in either house of the same character which might be amended to effect the result sought, and generally as to the advisability of introducing the measure.

The committee shall report upon each bill so referred to it on the same legislative day. The report shall be made at the conclusion of the consideration of the Senate Special File.

ADMINISTRATION OF OATH OF OFFICE.

The Hon. E. C. Hart, Justice of the Third District Court of Appeal of the State of California, administered the oath of office to Governor-elect Hiram W. Johnson, as follows:

I do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Governor according to the best of my ability.

PRESENTATION OF GOVERNOR HIRAM W. JOHNSON.

Lieutenant Governor Albert J. Wallace then presented Governor Hiram W. Johnson to the Joint Assembly. The Governor then delivered his Inaugural Address as follows:

SECOND INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF GOVERNOR HIRAM W. JOHNSON.

To the Senate and Assembly of the State of California:

Tonight for the second time, with all that comes with an occasion of this character, I take the oath as the Chief Executive of California. I take it with the same high resolve, the same sacred dedication, the same solemnity of duty to be performed, that four years ago upon this very rostrum, we commenced our task. None could then foretell what the future held for us, nor whether the ambitious projects for a rejuvenated and regenerated State were possible of fruition. Four years ago we voiced our hopes and our aspirations. In four years those hopes and aspirations have seen their realization, and have become definite settled policies of a great commonwealth. What then was empirical and doubtful has become certain and definite. When the new philosophy of government, born of love of justice for all humanity, was promulgated, so brief a period ago, few believed its consummation possible. In a single administration a marvelous change has been wrought, a change surpassing in the completeness of the metamorphosis of the government what has been witnessed by any other commonwealth. The doubt has been dissipated and the darkness that then we faced has been illumined by the sunlight of popular rule. A State has been freed politically, its public servants yielding now no allegiance but to the State—the sinister invisible government so familiar to American commonwealths has been banished, boss rule has been made permanently impossible by direct nominations, direct legislation and the recall, true democracy by the adoption of its instrumentalities has been more nearly approached, suffrage has been extended to women, election of judges, school officials, and county officers has been made non-partisan, the public utilities are controlled and regulated by the State, the business of the State has been centralized and systematized under a Board of Control, and corruption and favoritism have been eliminated; textbooks have been made free of cost to the pupils in our schools; a civil service law has destroyed political patronage and is striving for merit and efficiency in public service, prisons and reform schools reflect the humane and enlightened policy of a new State; a fuller measure of social and industrial justice has been accorded, and the State, while conserving all material interests, first concerns itself with and conserves its humanity. The social program but a few short years ago thought the vain dream of idealists, the program which gave to women who toil shorter hours and more happiness, and to men something of the justice that had been denied them, that has covered with the mantle of care and tenderness of the State, the injured and maimed members of society, has planted the beacon light of social justice and humanity far beyond the point to which the most ambitious commonwealth yet has gone.

ENCOURAGEMENT FOR FUTURE

All this, four years ago, we hoped and prayed for. Today, it is done. That it has been well done only those who live in a bygone age where morals and humanity were forgotten in materialism, will for an instant deny, and that the sovereign people of the State of California believe it to be just, and to have been well done, was overwhelmingly attested on the third of November last.

What has been done by the patriotic and unselfish men and women in the brief period of four years is the touchstone and encouragement for men and women in the four years yet to come, and we turn from the past, glowing with pride in its accomplishment and mellowed with the good that has been done, to the future so rich with promise.

Our people have pointed the way. To them has been submitted the work of the past four years, and those who have been their instruments and trustees in the performance of that work, never wavering in their optimism and implicit confidence in the soundness of heart of the people, submitted in detail their efforts and the new policies that were put in practice. Immediate and overwhelming has been the response from all our people. I say all, for whether you look at the determination of the electorate in our high mountains, in our fertile valleys, to our farmers, our merchants or our toilers, to our land of the south, or that of the north, or of the east or of the west, from every locality and in every class in the November election came approbation, endorsement, approval and the mandate for continuance. I take it, therefore, that our first duty is to perfect, preserve and perpetuate the various measures which so recently have had such emphatic sanction, and then upon the glorious path of progress so recently blazed to go forward toward the light.

NO DEFINITE PROGRAM

At this moment, it is not my purpose to set forth to you any definite program. In the biennial message some few recommendations are made. Work there is in abundance for every unselfish representative. There are subjects fraught with such tremendous possibilities that those who are here animated by the desire to aid the State and promote the happiness of its people, will find ample scope for their industry and their talents. If we may in small degree aid the ever increasing number of our unemployed (none, of course, locally can solve the problem), if we may find the appropriate mode of marketing farm products, if we may make the lot of those upon our soil a little less harsh, with a system of rural credits, if we may aid our irrigation projects and cause our arid lands to blossom, if we may conserve the waters of our State yet remaining and justly control the use of those held privately, if we may prosper legitimate business by the destruction of illegitimate exploitation, if the elective service of our State, like the appointive under civil service, and like our cities and counties, may be freed from partisan politics; if a bit more of happiness may be given our humanity, if we may render justice wherever injustice has prevailed, if we may do all or any of these things, or any part of any one of them we will have performed the duty that is ours and we will have kept pace with the just closing most marvelous era of California.

NO HASTE IN WORK

None of this is to be done hastily in ill-considered or half-understood legislation. All of the concentration and intelligence, ability, education and knowledge that we possess will be required for our task, and it within a few brief months we may not do it all, or any of it, we may at least with the highest intelligence that there is among us set it upon the way that those who follow may reach the goal. The work requires the highest and wisest statesmanship. It will have none of petty partisanship. You of the legislature here represent and typify the best in the citizenship of a free people. You bring to your tasks the breadth of vision, the love of country and of State, that can only be felt in its fullness by a people who are the country and the State. Peculiarly endowed with opportunity, singularly gifted as a part of a citizenship unexcelled in all the world, you will rise to the responsibilities that are yours and contribute your part to the destiny of a glorious land. If there be some small souls who shall raise a partisan barrier behind which they skulk for petty personal or partisan advantage, in the solemn task that is yours and mine we will put them aside and leave them in the darkness from which they have not yet emerged, and harmoniously the rest of us will go forward. In the spirit in which the duty of legislation is approached, will each be received. Fondly do we hope, fervently do we pray, that now at the close of a wondrous period of development politically and progress governmentally in our State, at the beginning of another period of promise and of hope, all may dedicate themselves to the work in hand with the single thought, and purpose, and hope, and aspiration, of a sacred duty to be conscientiously performed.

ADMINISTRATION OF OATH OF OFFICE.

The Hon. Everett J. Brown, Judge of the Superior Court of Alameda County, administered the oath of office to Lieutenant Governor-elect Hon. John M. Eshleman, as follows:

I do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the office of Lieutenant Governor according to the best of my ability.

PRESENTATION OF LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR JOHN M. ESHLEMAN.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor, Albert J. Wallace presented Lieutenant Governor John M. Eshleman to the Joint Assembly; the Lieutenant Governor delivered his Inaugural Address as follows:

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR JOHN M. ESHLEMAN.

Members of the Legislature of the State of California:

Eight years ago I came into the Capitol of the State of California as a member of the lower house of the legislature. I know it was eight years ago because the calendar says so. Yet in that time a government has been made over. Then the old cynical idea prevailed that men should not apply the same principles to governmental and political affairs that actuated them in their other relationships. Then the name "politician" was a byword, a term of reproach. Today I believe it has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of those agreeing with the theory of government upon which we proceed and those disagreeing therewith, that government may be honestly and conscientiously administered. During the last four years you know what has been done. During this session and the sessions to follow as much cannot possibly be done by way of progress as has come about during the last four years. Yet the suggestion that so much has been done that there cannot, and should not, be as many fundamental changes brought about in a similar time in the future should not lead us to conclude that all has been done. Progress, of course, is never arrested; but change is not always progress. He who has realized his ideal is useless and the satisfied man should be ready to die. Hence, always there will be a necessity for new accomplishments built, to be sure, upon the foundations laid in the past, but none the less essential and inevitable so long as mankind shall exist.

I would be wanting in proper appreciation if I did not say a word with reference to the retiring Lieutenant Governor. He has brought to this position courage, the highest kind of integrity, so much so that those who differ from him none the less respect him. Yet with his sincerity he has always been kindly and considerate to those with whom he has been associated. To me his upright and blameless life has been and is an inspiration, and his fidelity to his ideals of government has contributed largely to the accomplishments of the present administration. I am glad to call him my personal friend and I am glad to have had him for an official and political associate. His kind of men are needed in public life. Our best wishes go with him and we wish him the full measure of honor and happiness he so richly deserves.

It is with peculiar pleasure, too, that I realize that I shall be a part of the great administration that is before us as I have tried to do my little part during the last four years. It is indeed pleasant to contemplate the association with a man for whom I entertain such a sincere affection—an affection springing from respect. It must be a proud moment for Governor Johnson to contemplate the fact that he is the first man in a lifetime and the second man in history to have received the commendation of the people of California by a reelection, and a commendation expressed in such an overwhelming fashion that no doubt as to the feeling of the electorate can be entertained. A virile, strong man, a genial companion, a great ruler; he has not yet entered upon the final lap of his course and the people of California look forward to the greatest honors for the man who has done in a political generation that which has never been done in all the years of the State's history. A state has been remade. Government has become respectable, no longer is "public official" a term of reproach, and no longer do we blush for those who have been called to serve but who have forgotten the call.

Under such circumstances it is with pride that after the eight years I enter the Capitol again. Of course I have been reminded many, many times that the principal function of the Lieutenant Governor is to be ornamental. You have an ocular demonstration that if such is his function the incumbent will be a failure. Inasmuch as it is impossible for me to be ornamental, it is alone left for me to attempt to be useful, and to the very best of my ability I pledge myself to assist in the forward movement of this State. I pledge myself to the most hearty cooperation with the Chief Executive of this State and the two houses of the legislature. The people of the State of California have been very kind to me, and I know no way to repay them except by conscientious service which shall only be limited by my opportunity and my ability.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

The following message from the Governor was taken up and read:

SECOND BIENNIAL MESSAGE OF GOVERNOR HIRAM W. JOHNSON.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF CALIFORNIA,

January 5, 1915

To the Senate and Assembly:

In accordance with custom and the requirement of the constitution it becomes my duty to communicate with you by message.

INTRODUCTORY

In the past four years, California has entered upon various new governmental policies. The two preceding legislatures, acting in conjunction with the executive, and in accordance with the expressed will of the people, have sought to approach more nearly true democracy. The policies adopted were undertaken neither hastily nor by way of experiment, but carefully, cautiously, after due investigation and that the sovereign will of the people might be obeyed. Peculiarly fitted to California have been the new policies that so recently have seen their consummation. Our resources are without limit. Our development has but commenced. Within our borders every industry can thrive. There is nothing that the world produces but in abundance is given to us. The blessings of a beneficent Creator most generously have been showered upon us. The world perhaps has never seen a citizenship surpassed by ours, and here more than any other place on earth, it was fitting and appropriate that there should be a more pronounced self-government and a fuller measure of social justice than in any other land.

Your predecessors of the last two sessions rose to the occasion and afforded this people the agencies of self-government with which to fulfill their destiny. Their work was well performed. To you now is given the task of continuing, perfecting, and perpetuating that which has been so auspiciously and so ably commenced. To this task you will bring, I am sure, the same devoted disinterestedness and patriotism that have characterized those who have preceded you. It will be my part wherever I can, for our people and our State, to aid and assist. The policy of the Chief Executive will be exactly what it has been during the past four years: to act with all who strive unselfishly for the common interest; harmoniously to go forward with any whose sole allegiance is the State, earnestly to endeavor to accomplish whatever may be for the advancement and the prosperity and the happiness of our people. In this with me there will be no partisan spirit; and just as men of all parties have contributed in the past four years to the marvelous progress of our State, may men of all parties contribute to a glorious future.

I.

REVENUE AND TAXATION

4 Necessity for Additional Taxation

At the recent election the people abolished poll tax. This was done with the full knowledge that thus more than $800,000 would be eliminated from the revenue of the State. Our Supreme Court two years ago decided that the corporation license tax was illegal and invalid, and the legislature of 1913, pursuant to this decision and for other reasons as well, very properly repealed that tax. Recently the Supreme Court reversed itself, and while its latest decision upholding the corporation license tax is a source of gratification to the Attorney General, who has never wavered in his opinion of the law, it does not restore our $800,000 of lost revenue. In the destruction of these two sources of revenue the poll tax and the corporation license tax the State suffered a loss biennially in round numbers of $3,300,000. In addition to this, the people have by their mandate endorsed and required certain governmental activities of the past few years. Twice in three years the voters have emphatically approved the work of the Railroad Commission, and in the recent election they broadened very materially that work. A new constitutional amendment just adopted, transfers all of the power of rate fixing over public utilities in municipalities to the commission. The requisite machinery is essential that this mandate of the people may be obeyed, and of necessity a much larger appropriation than was originally contemplated will be required for the commission. In 1912, the people declared that free textbooks should be supplied to our school children. To do this costs the State more than half a million dollars. The Industrial Accident Commission has performed its tremendous task in such fashion that few will be found to object to such increased appropriation as may be necessary to carry on its important department. It is unfortunate, therefore, that while the people have imposed these additional burdens, they have eliminated a large portion of the revenue of the State. I ask that in the matter of appropriations rigid economy be observed, not an economy which will cripple the service of the State and in the end prove more costly than reasonable expenditure, but a rigid economy in undertaking new projects which as yet are without the sanction of our people. To many suggestions of new policy we lend a sympathetic attention, but at this time, with our lack of revenue, and its uncertainty in the next few years, I would impress upon you that it would be better for us to provide sufficiently for the activities in which we are now engaged and which have had so recently such emphatic approval, than to divide our revenue in exploiting new and untried policies. There are many projects we might wish to undertake, but if they entail a disproportionate expenditure, we may, without abandoning them, leave them to a near future, and devote ourselves in the main to perfecting and perpetuating those policies of demonstrated advantage and efficiency, and which are now familiar to and have been endorsed by the people. I do not wish to be understood as expressing opposition to meritorious plans concerning the State or to suggest to you that those should not be considered or even adopted, but where the expenditure is heavy and the plan of betterment vague, I would ask your most earnest and careful scrutiny and consideration.

B. Proportionate Rates of Corporations and Individual Property Owners

In 1910, the constitutional amendment was adopted by the people separating State and local taxation, and since that time our revenues have been derived from the corporations of the State. Under this amendment the larger public utility corporations pay as their taxes a percentage of their gross receipts, and therefore the revenues of the State become dependent substantially upon the gross receipts of its public service corporations. The new system undoubtedly possesses many virtues and certainly some vices. The needs of the State now, no matter how great they may be, must be compressed, in great measure, within the percentage derived by taxation from the gross receipts of these corporations a condition which, except in years most prosperous to the corporations, presents difficulties and may even bring great disaster. A system which requires the necessities of the State to fit an inelastic revenue, instead of requiring the revenue of the State to fit its constantly increasing needs, is one of ever recurring vexation. Again, it would seem that there could be no logical basis for requiring the individual property owner to pay taxes upon the concrete property that he possesses, while the great public service corporations pay not upon their possessions or the concrete property that is theirs, but upon their gross receipts. Again, while, of course, the State has the power, the propriety of taxing different classes in differing ways and creating classes of property owners for the purposes of taxation, has sometimes been questioned. On the other hand, the inequalities of the assessments made by the different counties of the property of the corporations, the difficulties encountered in equalization, among the different sections of the State, and various other annoyances were eliminated by the new method which has been in vogue in this State since 1910.

In the biennial message of 1913, it was pointed out that the new system of taxation would not afford, in 1913, and 1914, the revenue required by the State and it was asserted that under the new system a greater proportionate amount of taxes was paid by the individual property owner than by public service corporations.

Subsequently, in a special message to the legislature, I transmitted the report of the State Board of Equalization and in this report the board stated:

The board finds the average tax rate in the State of California for all property except that of the withdrawn public service corporations is $1.1385 upon each one hundred dollars of actual value. This means that the ordinary taxpayer in the State pays this rate.

The average rates of taxes paid by the several classes of the withdrawn public service corporations, as determined upon the basis of a stock and bond valuation, in accordance with the new tax scheme are

- 1 For railroads and street railways, $0.9092 upon $100 of actual value of property.
- 2 For gas and electric companies, $0.75.
- 3 For telegraph and telephone companies, $0.9060.
- 4 For car companies (Pullman Company only), $0.8813.
- 5 For express companies (Wells, Fargo & Co. only), $1.5413.

I thereupon asked the legislature to increase the rates of taxation of the withdrawn corporations to such a sum as should compel them to pay their just proportion of taxes. The legislature promptly acted, made its investigations and thereafter increased the rates.

The following table will indicate to you the rates charged to the corporations prior to 1913 and since then

	Prior to 1913	Since 1913
Railroads	4 % gross receipts	4 3/4 % gross receipts.
Gas and electric companies	4 % gross receipts	4 6/8 % gross receipts.
Telegraph and telephone companies	3 1/4 % gross receipts	4 2 % gross receipts.
Car companies	3 % gross receipts	4 % gross receipts.
Express companies	2 % gross receipts	2 % gross receipts.
Banks	1 % of shares of stock	1 % of shares of stock.
Franchises	1 % assessed value	1 % assessed value
Insurance companies	1 1/2 % on premiums	1 1/2 % on premiums.

Apparently, these increased rates did not on certain of the corporations impose a burden of taxation equivalent to that imposed upon individual property owners. The State Board of Equalization reported that the average burden of local taxes was $1.1386 per cent of the true value of the property taxed locally. The increases made in these various corporations would make the tax burden of these corporations apparently as follows

Railroads	1.079665 per cent
Gas and electric companies	.8625 per cent
Telegraph and telephone companies	1.0872 per cent
Banks and franchises remain at	1. per cent

Another important element that must be considered, in determining whether or not those corporations are paying their just proportion of taxes, is the increase in the various cities and counties of the State in the rate of taxation during the past two years. From reports on file in the office of the State Controller and the State Board of Equalization, it appears that the county assessment rolls were increased during the last two years 10.2 per cent and the county taxes collected were increased 19.1 per cent. City taxes have increased at a still more rapid rate. The burden of local taxation is much heavier today than it was two years ago. The basic ratio, therefore, of 1.1386 per cent, determined two years ago, is now very considerably increased; and if the figures and reports of the State Board of Equalization are correct, it is obvious that the corporations just enumerated do not pay their just proportion of taxes and that the burden of taxation borne by the farmer and individual owner of city real estate is much greater than the burden imposed upon many of the withdrawn corporations.

I ask, therefore, that immediately you undertake the appropriate investigation, and that such determination be rendered by you during the first portion of your session as shall equalize the burden of taxation and require the payment by the corporations mentioned of their just proportion.

II.

THE RAILROAD COMMISSION

So recently has the marvelous accomplishment of the Railroad Commission been exploited, that the extent of its activities and its tremendous contribution to the progress and advancement of our State presumably are well understood. From 1879 to 1912, the Railroad Commission had jurisdiction over railroad and transportation companies. The inactivity of the commission prior to 1911, it is unnecessary now to comment upon. On March 23, 1912, the Public Utilities Act went into effect. The Railroad Commission then was given jurisdiction not only over railroad and transportation companies, but over gas, electric, water, telephone and telegraph and similar utilities in their operations outside of municipalities. The Public Utilities Act provided, however, that municipalities could voluntarily surrender their authority by a vote of their electors, and many municipalities, during the last few years, have thus voluntarily come under the jurisdiction of the commission. From March, 1912, to December 22, 1914, 2,207 formal proceedings were filed with the commission, and during that period 2,019 of those were judicially determined. During the same time, 5,091 informal complaints, of sufficient importance to be docketed, were filed, and of this number 4,350 decided. In addition many thousands of complaints of less importance were passed upon; 2,460 miles of railroad have had their value fixed under the law permitting the Railroad Commission to make valuations of railroads and the value of 1,501 miles of railroad is now being considered.

One of the important jurisdictions exercised by the commission now is over bonds and stocks of utilities, and in this field, it has performed a great service.

Applications have been filed since March 23, 1912, for issuance of $504,842,605 of stocks and bonds and of this $398,388,467 have been authorized, $29,129,657 denied, $11,039,257 dismissed, and there are pending $66,285,224.

Under the constitutional amendment recently adopted the rate fixing of public utilities in municipalities is given to the Railroad Commission. What will be done in this regard by the commission will be a substitute for what has heretofore been done by the cities, and necessarily the cities will be relieved of the expense and the labor entailed. It would by no means be unjust that some provision should be made by the legislature, inasmuch as this intricate and important work has been transferred, requiring the municipalities to meet the expenses necessary to the determination of the rates of their public utilities. The burden has been shifted to the State, but the expense should legitimately be borne by the cities.

In the brief period of less than two years under the Public Utilities Act, the Railroad Commission has done more than has ever been done in the history of this nation by a similar tribunal. Not alone has it done the work, but it has demonstrated that fair and effective regulation is beneficial to the patrons of the utilities and the general public, and at the same time of advantage to the utilities themselves. The policy of the State and of the Railroad Commission has been not to harass business, but to insist upon firm and intelligent control of public utilities and that the patrons of those utilities should be protected from the extortionate demands that follow unrestrained monopoly.

If the government of the past four years of the State of California had failed in every other particular, the good that has been accomplished by the Railroad Commission, the final supremacy established for the State over its creations, however vast or rich or powerful, mark an epoch of transcendent accomplishment, unequalled in any other period of our history.

III.

BOARD OF CONTROL

During the past biennial period, the Board of Control continued and completed, within the limits of its power, the work of systematizing the State's business. Without fear of contradiction, we may today assert that the State's business is carried on with an economy and efficiency rivaling the most exacting methods of private corporations.

Between December 6, 1912, and December 5, 1914, the Board of Control audited claims amounting to $42,306,159 85. Of these claims the record shows

Deducted for mistakes and improper charges.....	$203,036 62
Claims withdrawn	234,866 11
Claims rejected	61,314 95
Total	$499,217 68

The board has completed the installation of a uniform system of accounting in all state departments and institutions. All institutions and departments are now subjected to regular audit. This audit not only protects the interests of the State, but affords the requisite shield to those in charge of the State's institutions. The auditing department of the board has commenced the work of the installation of a uniform system of accounting in the counties. This is now being done in the county of Los Angeles, where peculiar difficulties were presented. The value of the work has been attested by the grand jury and the supervisors of Los Angeles. Other counties of the State have followed the lead of the great county of Los Angeles and have asked the board to perform for them a similar service. The equipment of the Board of Control is not sufficient readily to meet the demands that now come to it from the different localities of the State, and such a force ought to be accorded this very efficient and money-saving department of the government, as will enable it to carry its work into every county of the State.

Under the limitations of the law as it now exists, the board has safeguarded the purchases by the State and has saved the State many hundreds of thousands of dollars. Its work could be better done and the saving to the State vastly increased, the board insists, if there were a centralized purchasing department. At present, each institution enters into its own contracts, subject to the approval of the Board of Control, and because contracts are made by each separate institution in a different locality of the State, the State labors under a serious commercial disadvantage. It is asserted by the board, that if all of these contracts could be let by the board itself, the State would have the advantage of buying in bulk through a centralized purchasing department, and it is estimated that it could thus save a quarter of a million dollars a year.

Through its children's agents, the Board of Control has been brought directly in contact with the children drawing state aid and with the various orphanages to whom the State extends support. The value of the work of the board, through its children's agents, can not be overestimated. While protecting the State in the expenditure of its funds, incalculable service has been rendered to the orphans.

I have not sought in detail to state to you the various activities of the Board of Control or the Railroad Commission. The amount of work performed by each of these departments, surpasses the conception of any of those who, four years ago, participated in the new order in California. It would require a volume to relate the advantages that have accrued from these commissions, or to detail the savings they have brought about. The one has made anew a part of the government debased by years of subservience to great corporations, and today presents that part of the government in the proud position of justly commanding and regulating those who before commanded and regulated it. The other has transformed in a brief period a wasteful, inefficient and archaic management into an enlightened, modern, honest, and economical business policy.

IV.

THE BANKING DEPARTMENT AND THE STATE'S CONDITION AS SHOWN BY IT

The past year has been one of stress and depression. A worldwide war has made itself felt upon the business of our nation and has unsettled financial conditions. Relatively speaking, our State has felt the anxiety, and the depression, and the stress less than any state in the nation. In the past two years many times complaints have been brought to me concerning the drastic enforcement of the banking laws, and often it has been asserted that the Bank Superintendent has been unduly severe. The answer is found in the condition of the banks of the State of California during the past year, a condition surpassing that of the banks of any other state. During this year of unsettled conditions and financial depression, consider how the banks of California have withstood the storm. The combined assets of the state banks of California, November, 1914, were $747,793,188.17, an increase in assets over the previous year of $13,957,251.30, and the demonstration that our banks have suffered less of commercial stagnation than has elsewhere been felt. Upon the same date the banks of California had in loans and discounts an aggregate of $468,460,748.17, an increase in one year of $7,701,320.22. There was then cash on hand in our banks a total of $28,906,896.86, an increase over the preceding year of $1,329,745.20. The individual deposits then amounted to $586,812,220.46, an increase over the previous year of $8,353,709.42. These deposits represent a steady, healthy and substantial growth. In four years, from January, 1911, to November, 1914, the deposits, representative of the wealth of the people of California, increased $108,000,000.

Of the aggregate deposits mentioned above of $586,000,000 there were in savings deposits of individuals alone $447,000,000. This remarkable total of savings deposits makes California rank in these deposits fourth in the United States.

There is another significant fact that justifies strict enforcement of the banking laws. In the past two years, California has had just one bank failure, and in this there was immediate rehabilitation, without loss. In the past year, California has had no bank failure.

The report of the able and efficient State Building and Loan Commissioner shows that in California there are ninety-two building and loan associations, whose assets now aggregate $25,515,762.57 and that in the past year these assets have increased $1,199,740.60. The number of members and investors in building and loan companies show an increase of 1,674, the number of borrowers an increase of 794.

The statistics of our banks and building and loan associations, the facts briefly quoted, furnish the irrefutable evidence of California's financial condition.

V.

STATE HOSPITALS

The hospitals for the insane in California have been finally modernized. By suitable appropriations, accommodations have been provided and the very crowded condition that existed a couple of years ago has been relieved. Each of the asylums is now doing more than the usual perfunctory work of institutions of this character. Closer and more careful study is given to the causes of insanity, much bacteriological and serological work is done. The endeavor has been made and successfully, to give greater attention and study to the individual. Trained pathologists have been engaged and scientifically the work in each hospital has been improved. An after care worker is now employed, whose duty it is to keep in touch with paroled cases that have been problematical in the institutions, and whose duty it is to aid both those paroled and discharged from asylums—in short, to provide for those who require it, a helping and a guiding hand.

The extraordinary growth of the southern part of the State required there another hospital and the requisite appropriation was made in 1913. A site was selected near Norwalk, in Los Angeles County, after due examination of the land by Dean Hunt, Director of the Agricultural Department of the University of California. The State Engineering Department reports that this new institution will be ready for occupancy in October, 1915.

VI

STATE PRISON AND REFORM SCHOOLS

The radical change in the policy of the state in its reform schools met at first with decided opposition which the results of the past two years have happily overcome. The endeavor has ever been, under Mr. Nelles, at Whittier, and Mr. Derrick, at Preston, to make of these institutions to which the young who have offended against the law are committed, in reality schools, where by tolerance and patience and kindness, reformation and reclamation might be accomplished. At one time these reform schools were but kindergartens for our state prisons. In 1911 a roster was furnished me of boys who had been confined in the reform schools and who subsequently had served terms in state prisons. The percentage was appalling. Those now in charge of our reform schools proceed upon the theory that constant and painstaking effort is worth while in every individual case, and that none is hopeless. By this policy the institutions have been revolutionized for the better. I commend the methods employed by Mr. Nelles and Mr. Derrick and invite the attention of the legislature to the results attained.

The changes wrought in our state prisons by legislative enactment and by the work of those in charge have of late been many. There are no changes, however, that could meet with the approval of one class, and all changes would be denounced by another. There are those who believe that men confined in prisons should have meted out to them the harshest and most rigorous treatment. There are others who insist that society is responsible for all men in jail; and who assert that there should be no prisons. It is immaterial whether the government of the prisons meets with the approval of the one class or the other. The question should be whether those who have offended against the laws and who, under the law, are sent to penal institutions are there treated in a humane and enlightened fashion. The policy in the State has been to endeavor to return offenders to society better physically, mentally, and morally than when they were received. Among the important changes that have occurred are, the abolition of indignities, cruelties and corporal punishment; provision for thorough physical examination of every prisoner received; general improvement in medical attention, hospital facilities, and measures of sanitation, creation of educational opportunities, development of day schools for young men, opening of night schools for men of mature years, and the inauguration of a system of correspondence courses, increase of outdoor labor and the endeavor to train men in industrial pursuits.

The attitude of the prison directors in the matter of paroles is demonstrated by the statistics. The total number of men paroled from 1893 until 1914 was 2,937. In the four years 1911, 1912, 1913 and 1914, there were 1,792 paroles granted. The record discloses that of those paroled 78 per cent make good, but it should be borne in mind that of the 22 per cent who are classed as violators, the records of the prison directors establish that only 4 per cent really commit new crimes, the other 18 per cent being guilty of petty offenses or of failure to observe parole conditions. Conditions for obtaining parole have been changed. Four years ago a man applying for parole was obliged to deposit with the board of directors $25 before his application would be heard. This condition was eliminated. The applicant was obliged to publish at his own expense, notice of his application for parole in a certain number of issues of a paper published in the county from which he was sentenced. This, as well, has been abolished. Again, in the event of parole, the paroled man was obliged to furnish his own outgoing clothing, as well as transportation to his place of employment. He is now clothed and given transportation.

The State Board of Charities and Corrections with the most careful and critical scrutiny has examined our reform schools and prisons. I recommend to you the earnest consideration of their report.

VII.

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENT COMMISSION

The social program presented to California in 1911, and endeavored to be carried out by the enactment of appropriate legislation, found its culmination in 1913 in the workmen's compensation law. Not only did the new human philosophy of government find its final expression in this law, but against it was made the last stand of those who had interposed themselves for three years, to the changed political conditions in California. In the light of what has transpired we may be pardoned the briefest retrospect concerning this law that typifies the state policy in the administration just closing. When the act was before the legislature there was strident denunciation extending apparently from one end of the State to the other. The newspapers that had constantly opposed every act governmentally done for humanity were blazoned with pages of abuse and vilification and denunciation and mendacity directed not only at the law, but at every individual advocating that law. A campaign against this enactment was carried on such as California never before has seen, such as probably no other state ever has witnessed, and which may it be fervently hoped, no other state ever will witness. The misrepresentation and mendacity of this campaign passes belief, and the appeals to those engaged in business pursuits were revolutionary in character. The result was what might have been expected, a large class of our people viewed with distrust and fear a merciful law, designed only to aid broken humanity, and business in California trembled at what day after day it was asserted was a covert attack to injure and destroy it.

It had been learned from bitter experience that the rapacity of some insurance companies from whom employers might obtain protection could be curbed only by the State, and in the workmen's compensation law, the State entered the insurance field in order that its people might, because of its rivalry in that particular line of business, obtain insurance at just rates. This very beneficent purpose of the insurance clause of the law led to the circularizing of the State in denunciation of the socialistic program of California, and very familiar became the screaming hysteria of many well meaning individuals who decried our entry upon socialistic and anarchistic doctrines. In January, 1914, the workmen's compensation law became operative. In September, 1914, its constant and conspicuous opponents who for two years had denounced and abused and vilified the law and its sponsors and advocates, were pretending to the people of the State of California that they were the proponents and the original advocates of the law. What in January, 1914, was denounced as an "act to paralyze business," "the boldest looting attempt ever made," "an act to destroy enterprise," in August and September, 1914, was the most beneficent act ever placed upon the statute books. A few short months demonstrated its wisdom, and now none deny that it is a marvelous and a humane law of benefit and advantage alike to employer and employee.

From January, 1914, to December 22, 1914, in the compensation department of the Industrial Accident Commission, there have been filed 830 claims. Of these 549 have been adjudicated and 281 are yet pending. In the 377 cases that have been decided in favor of employees awards have been made totalling $159,641 56. In 67 cases the amount of the award is undetermined because a weekly indemnity was ordered until the disability terminated. In two cases a life pension has been granted. In addition to these, cases that may be termed contested, very many instances have arisen where the Commission has participated in an amicable agreement for settlement between employer and employee.

The insurance department of the State has been in competition with about twenty-five insurance companies. The State has written to date in premiums $748 658 96 and has registered 6,140 applications for compensation insurance from employers. The total organization and operating expenses of the insurance department have been $55,845 76 or ten and one tenth per cent of the premiums written. So well has the insurance fund been managed that it is the intention of the commission on or about January, 1915, to return to policy holders fifteen per cent of the premiums earned to that date. The State is not in the insurance business to make profit, and the larger part of the profit that has been derived during the past year from the economical and able management of the fund will be returned, as stated, to those who have transacted their insurance business with the State. Of course, it will be obvious that this policy will require the reduction of rates by private corporations, and employers during the ensuing year may look therefore to a very substantial reduction in rates of insurance.

There have been reported to the insurance fund 3 445 accidents. To date, we have paid the following:

Benefits paid—
Medical expenses	$43,878 81
Compensation	44,464 93
Total	$88,343 74
Outstanding liabilities are—
Medical	$47,915 70
Compensation	131,341 36
Total	$179,257 06

Not alone is the State engaged in the beneficent work of caring for the injured, of tiding over their period of adversity, and of compensating the maimed, but it has endeavored to render more safe the places where men are required to work. The safety department of the Industrial Accident Commission has done a work that can only be understood by knowing its detail. Suffice it here to say that it has inspected 579 industrial plants employing 66,000 men and that it has by its advice, and where that would not be readily followed, by its insistence, provided devices for the protection of the lives and the limbs of toilers. In 1913 the statistical department estimated the number of accidents to have been 825. In 1914 these were reduced to 720.

That this reduction is due in part at least to the work of the safety department can not be doubted.

Glance at the next decision rendered by the Supreme Court of the State of California for personal injury. Observe the date of the accident, three, four, five, six or even eight years before the date of decision. Note the award. Investigate to whom the final judgment will go. Often after five or six years of bitter litigation between employer and employee an award finally made by a court is felt to be unjust by both; and the proceeds go to others than those really entitled. Compare the summary method of the Workmen's Compensation Act by which on the briefest notice, before the Industrial Accident Board, employer and employee meet on terms of amity. If not meeting amicably the case without delay is presented to the Industrial Accident Board, and the decision speedily rendered. The award is made against an employer protected by his insurance and is immediately paid, without the intervention of third parties, and the whole of the award goes to the injured party or to his family.

The Workmen's Compensation Act has justified itself and has justified those who, in the dark days of bitter, mendacious attack saw the light, and carried it forward to its present resplendent position.

CIVIL SERVICE

The legislature of 1913, responding to the pledge that had been made by the administration, passed the first civil service law of the State of California. The design of this law was to place the public service of the State upon the basis of merit and efficiency alone, and its prime purpose, of course, was to destroy the pernicious practices arising from political patronage. For nearly a year and a half now our law, perhaps the most drastic that exists in the nation, has been in effect. It has removed the public service from the domain of politics. All of the subordinate positions in the State of California when this law was signed by the Governor were placed under civil service, and no longer does the executive of the State or the heads of departments have the power of appointment of those subordinates. The measure was new and sweeping, and was possible of passage only because of the changed conditions politically that had occurred in our State. A civil service law is effective only if in the hands of its friends. The legislature attempted and succeeded in placing the Civil Service Commission beyond the power of any official, even of him appointing it. The Commissioners have with impartiality diastically enforced the law. Sufficient time has elapsed for us unhesitatingly to say that it has accomplished its prime purpose, and that under the present administration of the law, political patronage is at an end. The other side of this enactment, relating to efficiency, has given rise to many difficulties, and at times, to extreme irritation. In some instances, heads of departments have resented the law, in other instances apparently it has not accomplished wholly the increased efficiency expected.

It is a very different spectacle that is now presented concerning the service of the State from that ever before presented. Now regular examinations are held for positions. The papers of those taking those examinations are carefully and scientifically marked. Those who lead are given the preference and are certified to the department or official requiring assistants, and the department or official must select from the certified list of the Civil Service Commission. It happens not infrequently that one who passes with high rank an examination may not, after all, prove most efficient, and particularly is this so when the position requires poise, balance, tact, and those human qualities that can not be measured by ordinary examination. I find upon investigation, that in other states and in particular communities these same difficulties have been encountered, but the advantage of destroying political patronage, of removing the State's service from politics, outweighs such disadvantages as may occur. Our law went into effect August 15, 1913, and on that date all of the employees of the State, subject thereto were "blancketed in" under civil service. Since then over five thousand three hundred applicants for positions have been duly examined. Six hundred and fifty civil service appointments to permanent positions have been made by the commission. The work has been arduous and continuous and has been conscientiously performed.

IX.

COMMISSION ON IMMIGRATION AND HOUSING

The systematic work scientifically done by this commission in our state can only be thoroughly understood by reference to its report. In one direction alone it has accomplished results that had it done nothing else would have justified its creation, and justified many times its expenditures. The labor camps of the State of California were in very many instances unfit for human habitation. The Commission on Immigration undertook a systematic inspection of these camps. Hundreds of them it has had cleaned up and rendered sanitary. For more than 60,000 human beings the commission has had provided better and more sanitary places in which to live, and for this great work, so well performed, the commission has the thanks not only of those who were unable to aid themselves and have benefited but of the State at large.

The commission as well has performed its work for the protection of the immigrant. In various cities of the State it has presented the evils resulting from improper housing, and within the limits of the law has endeavored to correct these evils.

I am deeply indebted to the commission for the aid it has rendered me on many occasions in social problems that have arisen. Particularly am I indebted for its very careful work concerning the unemployed about which I speak more at length hereafter. This particular commission has furnished to me a scientific investigating arm in social questions, and the obligation of the State to the commission and its members I feel can never be repaid.

X.

LABOR BUREAU

In the last two years the Bureau of Labor Statistics has continued its very efficient and important work of the first two years of this administration. Branch offices now exist in Sacramento and San Diego. The bureau enforces all laws pertaining to the welfare of labor and assists the men and women who toil, who are unable to obtain a hearing of their grievances, at any other place.

It is impossible to record all of the activities of the bureau, but among them are the supervision of the payment of wages due seasonal labor amounting to over $500,000 each year. In former years the average net wages paid to the laborers upon their return from the fisheries of Alaska were below $50, under the supervision of the bureau and under its law, which prohibits deductions in those wages for liquor bills or gambling debts, the average of the past two years has been over $100. One of the largest tasks undertaken by the bureau has been the settlement of claims for wages. These are claims the insignificance of which from the ordinary standpoint precludes the employment of attorneys or the possibility of litigation. In these instances the bureau has constituted itself a poor man's court, and in the past three years has done an amazing work, little understood. Here are the figures:

	Number of claims filed	Number of claims collected	Amount of wages collected
Fiscal year ending June 30, 1912	1,899	1,292	$24,445 59
Fiscal year ending June 30, 1913	3,573	2,213	36,480 09
Fiscal year ending June 30, 1914	7,306	4,904	110,911 93
Totals	12,780	8,409	$171,838 21

In the last fiscal year you observe more than 7300 claims filed. This is more than 600 per month, practically 25 per day. During that period $110,000 have been collected without cost to the men and women who possessed the claims. The problem involved in this undertaking is fundamental and at the very root of our economic structure. The man or woman who has toiled honestly and can not obtain the wages earned loses faith in humanity and in the efficacy of our laws and courts. This beneficent work has suddenly been stopped by the decision of the Appellate Court of the First District by its decision rendered November 23, 1914, declaring the wage law unconstitutional. I have asked the Attorney General's aid in the preparation of a new law upon this subject, and I commend to you the passage of any wage law which will enable the work of the Labor Bureau to continue and which will perform the functions designed for the law just declared unconstitutional.

XI.

INDUSTRIAL WELFARE COMMISSION.

I can not better give you an idea of the work of this commission than in the very brief résumé that has been filed with me by its secretary.

In this it is stated:

The Industrial Welfare Commission was permanently organized on January 2, 1914.

As provided for by the statute creating this commission, investigations were begun in the various industries in order to determine if the wages paid to women and minors were adequate to supply the cost of proper living, and whether the conditions of labor were detrimental to the health, morals and welfare of the workers. These investigations have been diligently pursued throughout the year and are embodied in the report of the commission to be submitted to the legislature.

The commission has undertaken what is probably the most exhaustive study of the subject made by any state. In carrying out this work, the commission adopted a rather unique policy. There was no attempt to make its investigations fit any preconceived ideas on the subject, nor did it attempt to act hastily in order to meet any public clamor. Realizing that it had an extremely complex question before it, the commission sought to obtain first hand information from both the employer and employee. A long series of conferences were held with the representatives of employers in the various industries. These conferences were informal and have been eminently successful in bringing about a better understanding by the employer of the aims and objects of the law, and a spirit of cooperation on the part of the employer in assisting the commission in making its investigations.

While the commission, up to the present time, has made no rulings fixing minimum wages the effect of this work has been, that many of the employers have voluntarily raised the minimum wages paid in their establishments. The most gratifying part of the work of the commission to date has been this voluntary action on the part of the employers in many industries, after the matter had been drawn to their attention by the work of this commission.

Extensive investigations have been made into the home conditions of the women employed in the various industries, most of the investigations being made at night at the homes of the individuals.

The commission believes that it has pursued the correct policy in staying off any hasty action and withholding its rulings until it had a very thorough knowledge on the subject; also in seeking to have the employers cooperate with it, rather than take any antagonistic position against them. The commission wants to feel that when its rulings are made, that these rulings will not injure the persons for whom the benefits of the law were intended.

XII.

STATE PRINTING OFFICE.

The most striking demonstration of the difference between the former management of the State Printing Office and its management in the last few years, is afforded by the manufacturing cost of textbooks of the State. In 1912, our people at the general election directed that free textbooks be furnished to the pupils of our schools. A very great financial burden thus was added to the State, but added by the people themselves and of necessity was obeyed. The State Printing Office, under efficient management, has reduced the manufacturing cost of those textbooks nearly 50 per cent. The financial problem involved in furnishing these books would have been extremely difficult but for the economy in their printing. In the State Printing Office now, there is an elaborate system which renders favoritism to bidders—the scandal of the past—an impossibility.

XIII.

HIGHWAY COMMISSION.

There is no subject in which greater interest is taken or concerning which there is greater diversity of opinion than road building. It is an old adage, that no man ever builds a road satisfactorily to anybody but himself. This we had fair to change, however, under the present State Highway Commission. While many differences of opinion have existed in the past and there has been more or less controversy, gradually the ideas of highway builders have crystallized, and the type of construction of the state highways today is admittedly the best. Unfortunately it has been absolutely impossible to sell the bonds issued by the State for improvements, and thus we have been retarded in the consummation of our highway system. The Highway Commission, however, with an energy and pertinacity that do them infinite credit, refused to be stopped in their work, by the inability of the State to sell its bonds, and by going to the various counties of the State and presenting the benefits of a completed highway system and the necessity for cooperation of the various localities, they succeeded in obtaining a ready and patriotic response, by which the different counties of the State, to the extent of their ability, purchased highway bonds. A brief account of the Highway Commission, which, of course, can only present an outline of its policy, is found in the following report.

Construction of the state highway under the bond issue of eighteen millions of dollars has proceeded despite untoward financial conditions making difficult the marketing of bonds bearing a low rate of interest. Purchases at par of the state highway bonds ceased on the open market in October, 1912, when sales had been made amounting to $2,105,000. The Highway Commission continued the work then under way and prosecuted surveys and right of way details, meanwhile casting about for a method of marketing the bonds, since the mandate of the Highways Act enforced sales at par. The method which was adopted is worthy of special mention, for it involves a splendid State patriotism which was reflected from all parts of California. By the cooperation of county officials and banking interests, whereby the depreciation on the bonds was absorbed, further sales were made amounting to $9,124,000, and further subscriptions for bonds not yet taken are $1,178,000. The purchases were made by the various counties and banks, but in a majority of instances were resold, so that a large part of the money realized was thereby brought into the State from the East. Con struction has been apportioned in the counties according to the respective amounts of bonds taken.

Upon its organization the Highway Commission made studies in accordance with the provisions of the principal routes to be constructed. Surveys have been completed on all of these routes, and the work was well enough in hand in the past summer to justify the commissioners in making similar studies of the mountain and lateral roads constituting the secondary system of routes provided for in the State Highways Act. These studies of laterals which were made in August and September, 1914, are being followed by reconnaissances by engineers in advance of plans for actual construction. On the studies of possible main highways the commissioners and the highway engineer rode over six thousand eight hundred miles of roads, and in going over possible laterals they traveled two thousand one hundred miles. From these main lines and laterals a selection of practically three thousand miles of state highways is made to comprehend the total construction which will comply with the law.

The Highway Commission decided that the main roads traversing the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys and along the coast and joining the centers of population were of sufficient traffic importance to justify paving, and these are being constructed as concrete roadways. The paving of the main roads was planned and is being constructed in harmony with traffic needs, the width of pavement and type of surfacing are varied according to the volume of traffic to be served. The laterals, since the traffic does not call for so costly a treatment, are generally to be surfaced with gravels or other local materials. The Highway Commission early determined on the following main characteristics for the roads to be constructed: A right of way not less than sixty feet wide, where reasonably possible, and as direct between objective points as may be consistently obtainable, gradients not exceeding seven per cent, even in mountainous portions of the state, curves as open as possible, and in no case of less than fifty feet in radius; as many culverts as are needed to take care of surface and underground water, a traveled way, under ordinary conditions not less than twenty-one feet feet in width, and in the mountains not less than sixteen feet wide with the center paved or surfaced so as to be hard and smooth under all climatic conditions at all times of the year; and smoothly graded roadsides reserved for future tree planting.

The State Highways Act provided that three thousand miles of roads of an adequate and permanent character should be built with an expenditure, including all expenses, of eighteen millions of dollars, obviously a difficult undertaking, and by a number of road authorities deemed impossible of achievement. The bond issue was therefore supplemented by the Highway Commission with a series of savings and economies which amounted practically to several millions of dollars. The counties were requested to secure rights of way without cost to the State and to construct all state highway bridges having more than twenty feet in span. The expensive construction inside the limits of incorporated cities was omitted in favor of country mileage exclusively. Contracts were made with cement and other supply men to purchase materials in large quantities at extremely low prices. The railroads were asked to grant half rates on all materials and machinery hauled for state highway construction. Generous and prompt responses to these requests were received by the Highway Commission, particularly from the county boards of supervisors.

There are now one thousand miles of the state highway completed or under construction, and a total of two thousand miles on which surveys have been completed. Contracts have been completed or are under way in thirty-nine of the counties, and more than one hundred forty contracts for construction have been instituted to date. A great deal of painstaking preliminary work, not apparent to the average person, but necessary to insure the permanent character of the highway locations, has been carried out by the Highway Commission. The State controls the entire width of its highway from location line to location line in every respect except the enforcement of regulations for policing. The state highway has been laid out to meet and to anticipate modern traffic requirements, and the records of the highways must be made with great care and accuracy. The old roads were laid out when land was cheap and it was thought unnecessary to exercise any great amount of care in surveys or descriptions, the highway of today, for a multitude of reasons, requires exactness of location and thoroughness in surveys and plans, and this has been the settled policy of the Highway Commission. For the protection of the bond issue alone, if no other reason were apparent, the surveys and plans must be so carefully made that there can be no future questioning of the rights of way. The highway location is the only absolutely permanent feature of the work, and this has been appreciated by the Highway Commission in the care that has been taken to have their preliminary work make for permanence.

The type of pavement adopted by the Highway Commission for the main roads has been tried long enough to prove it suitable and durable under the conditions prevailing in California. Enough experiments have been made in surfacing to justify the use of the bituminous top generally used in state highway construction. The first surfacing of this kind was done near Fresno, where it has been under heavy traffic for two years without showing appreciable wear.

In addition to the construction work and its preliminaries the Highway Commission has under way the organization of maintenance plans for the state highway system, funds for which are derived from the state's share of the motor vehicle license fund

XIV.

SAN FRANCISCO HARBOR.

During the past two years, the work of developing the docking facilities of the great harbor of San Francisco and the State Belt Railroad along the water front has continued with increased energy. The design of the Harbor Commissioners has been with the opening of the Panama Canal to provide facilities required for increased shipping expected to come to San Francisco Bay. Within the past two years, nine new piers and three new bulkhead wharves have been built, adding 50 per cent to the existing wharf area. Contracts for others are in the course of fulfillment and when the present contracts are completed, the wharf area of the past four years will have been more than doubled. In addition, the work upon six new ferry slips has been commenced and three of these have been completed. The State Belt Line has completed the connection between the northern and the southern division by an extension across Market street and the total trackage has been more than doubled. Harbor experts concede now that the State, at the San Francisco harbor, has the most complete Harbor Belt Line Railroad switching system in the country. The business of the Belt Line is now more than twice what it was a year ago. The rapid and extensive development was made possible by the $9,000,000 bond issue which became available in 1911; but in addition to this, the harbor board has been able out of the surplus earnings of the harbor to make other improvements to the amount of $300,000. California may well rejoice that the great engineering dream of the age—the Panama Canal—has now been realized, and for the responsibilities that come to us from the completion of this great work. California is prepared

XV.

SCHOOL FOR GIRLS

The legislature in 1913 established the California School for Girls, directed the acquisition of an appropriate site, and the training thereafter of wayward girls in a separate institution. The school is presided over by a board of directors composed wholly of women, and no board in the State either in charge of an institution or performing other service for the commonwealth, has been more apt or vigilant or able in the performance of its duty. The new school has been organized at Whittier, and awaits transfer to its selected location in Ventura. It is expected within a very few months that the buildings upon the new site will be ready for occupancy. Under the management of the women who constitute the board of directors, the work with each individual pupil who has been committed to the school, in an enlightened and sympathetic manner, has gone forward, and to no institution with like ultimate purpose can the State look with more hope for good results than to the California School for Girls.

XVI

SUPERINTENDENT OF CAPITOL BUILDING AND GROUNDS

The justification for the departure made in 1911 by the legislature in providing for a superintendent of capitol building and grounds and putting under him our capitol building, the beautiful park adjacent to it, and the purchase of supplies for State officials, is found at a glance by a comparison of the prices now paid for ordinary office supplies by the State, and the prices paid under the old system. The records show and in the table of the report of the superintendent these are set forth, that the reduction during the incumbency of the superintendent in these purchases generally exceeds 50 per cent.

Again, those who have occasion to view our capitol or its park, have an ocular demonstration of the differences between the method once pursued and that now in vogue in the State service.

The Superintendent of the Capitol Building and Grounds is to be congratulated upon the appearance of that which is immediately under his jurisdiction, and upon his efficiency in purchasing for our officials.

XVII.

ENGINEERING DEPARTMENT

With the growth of our State the modernizing of our state institutions and the advancement in every department of government, the work of the Engineering

Department has expanded to an enormous extent. This department not only has charge of the construction work of the State, but also of state roads and the work upon our rivers. Its expenditures during the biennial period have been

Architectural -----	$3 222,378 81
Roads -----	141,231 01
Rivers -----	303,824 00
Total -----	$3,667,433 82

What is designated as architectural work includes all work relating to construction from the alteration of an existing building to the construction of a new hospital for the insane.

The State Engineer reports to me "notwithstanding the fact that 115 out of 136 constructions were of a relatively small total cost, that is between \$1,000 and \$20,000, we have been able to do the office portion of our work, including all special, expert engineering service, for $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent of the total cost. The corresponding fee in private practice is 6 per cent, not including 1 or 2 per cent for special expert engineering service."

A brief recapitulation will indicate to you something of the extensive and varied character of the engineering department's work.

It is now constructing the hospital for the insane at Norwalk, in Los Angeles County; the Amusement Hall at Yountville, in the Veterans' Home, Napa County; the model Rural School at Chico, Butte County; together with 130 other constructions. In addition, it is building roads, bridges, and culverts in the different localities of the State, and in addition it is snagging and dredging the Sacramento River, building bank protection on the San Joaquin River, strengthening the levee of the Calaveras River and draining on the Feather River.

The department has become one of the most important as well as one of the most difficult.

XVIII,

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

In the last biennial message it was said:

We may be justly proud of the academic prominence of the University of California. It has attained an eminence that entitles it today to be ranked among the great institutions of our nation. In enrollment it is the second college in the land, being exceeded in the number enrolled by Columbia alone. Its situation is ideal, the standard of its work equal to any, and I feel that too great praise can not be accorded to those who have brought it to its present high academic efficiency.

I wish it, however, to serve the other purpose as well, to be in touch with the agricultural and horticultural and viticultural interests of the State, to be the Mecca of every man who wishes to know how best to treat or till the soil, to be as useful to our people who have been without academic advantages as it is to those who seek academic advantages. * * * It should contain experts of such standing that those who wish knowledge or instruction in any particular avocation may turn there with the certainty of finding what is sought. It should be in such close and intimate touch with our soil that it should teach those who are upon the soil the best methods of treating the soil, what would be the most prolific and productive and what of greatest advantage.

The suggestion that we should make the University of California the great melting pot for the problems that come to our people, that it be the guiding hand of agriculture and horticulture and that its agricultural college should spread its beneficent work throughout the State, met with sympathetic and ready response from the legislature. The appropriation for the university in 1913 was tremendously increased, and this increase was for the purpose of aiding the people who are engaged in farming, or in any occupation whatever upon the soil. The money has been well expended by the State. The University of California is now not only preeminent upon the academic side, but it rivals any institution of learning of the nation in dealing with the every day problems that confront the agriculturist or horticulturist. Just as this department of the University has been developed we look forward to the day when to the University we may turn for guidance in the best in civic matters and for a full and immediate determination of any civic or governmental problem that comes to us.

It may be that the distance that separates the State Capitol and the University has rendered it impossible, in the past, to have that cooperation and collaboration between the departments of government and the college that should exist, but just as it was my dream respecting the agricultural college, that it might lead, instruct, aid, direct and guide all our tillers of the soil, and as I have seen this dream realized, so it is now my dream that some day the great University of California, second now to no institution of learning in our nation, may be the place to which every perplexed official and every patriotic citizen striving to the utmost of his ability, may turn for the solution of civic and social and governmental problems.

XIX

NORMAL SCHOOLS.

It is unnecessary to indulge in suggestions to you concerning the normal schools of the State. Singularly fortunate is California in the personnel of those who direct our normal schools. These schools are increasing in attendance with more rapidity than the State is increasing in population, but the increased attendance is well and ably cared for. That there is little to report concerning these schools, except that their standards are high, their work well done, and their management excellent, is perhaps the highest commendation that could be bestowed upon them.

XX.

THE NATIONAL GUARD

Under the able management of General E. A. Forbes, the National Guard has reached a degree of efficiency and presents a better organization, more able to respond to the nation's call, than ever before in its history.

California had no field artillery prior to four years ago. During that time a full battalion of three batteries and headquarters have been organized and equipped with the most modern guns and material. Its officers have several times attended regular army schools in the East, and most of them are now sufficiently trained to take their places beside similar officers in the field artillery of the United States Army.

A full squadron of cavalry and headquarters have also been organized, and enough horses for each troop for training purposes have been supplied this branch of the service, resulting in a vast improvement among the officers and enlisted men.

The Medical Department has been reorganized to conform to the regular army methods and standards, and is now in a position to perform efficient service under any and all conditions. Included in the Medical Department are a field hospital with one hundred and five beds to care for the sick and wounded in actual campaign, and an ambulance company of twelve ambulances.

The signal corps has been completely equipped with modern wireless and telephonic and other means of communication, and is now a valuable branch of the service.

Armories have been constructed in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Sacramento sufficient to properly house thirty-nine organizations of the National Guard and Naval Militia.

The Naval Militia of California, to which one more division has been added at Los Angeles, has been furnished with modern ordnance by the Navy Department. In addition to the U. S. S. "Marblehead" the Federal Government is about to assign the torpedo boat "Farragut" to the Naval Militia of this State for training purposes, all of which will insure this branch of the State's service maintaining its present position at the head of the naval militia organizations of the United States, with particular reference to successful cruises and target practice at sea under direction and supervision of its own officers.

Target ranges have been constructed for more than forty organizations, where at the beginning of the present administration there were target facilities for but sixteen organizations. There is no better balanced National Guard in the country than that of California.

XXI.

STATE MINING BUREAU.

This bureau, pursuing the policy now general in the State, has brought itself of late directly in touch with the great industry it was designed to aid. A complete general report upon the mines and mineral resources of the state has been undertaken. Field assistants with technical education and practical experience have completed this record for thirty-four of our counties. Because of the immensity of our petroleum resources, a special report was deemed advisable in reference to this industry. The water conditions in the great oil fields have been analyzed and reports have been distributed to those interested. In general, the State Mining Bureau has dealt with every subject pertaining to mines and minerals and by publications and personal contact has rendered its assistance to our great mining industry.

XXII.

STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

A radical departure was made two years ago, in the State Board of Education. The old unwieldy organization, consisting of superintendents of normal schools and various other officials, who constituted the state board, was abolished and a new State Board of Education created. This board, composed of educators, both men and women, of the highest rank, has performed excellent service. I await their detailed report that I may transmit it to you and that you may have before you a full statement of the achievement of the new board.

There are many other departments of the State government whose work is important and whose activities have been pronounced. It is impossible to refer to all of these. Generally it may be said of those now in the service of the State, that all are actuated by ambition to accomplish results and to render unto the State the best possible service.

RECOMMENDATIONS

NON-PARTISANSHIP

Most earnestly do I suggest to you that our state officials be elected without party designation of any sort. The advance to non-partisanship in our State will be neither an extended nor a difficult step. The political units that compose the State have all adopted non-partisanship in the selection of their officials. The desideratum of all government is efficiency—to obtain honest and able officials devoted exclusively to the government. To govern well is to govern for all, not for a part or a class. To act in official capacity should be to act solely for the benefit of the state and that official acts best who forgets every other consideration, but the interest of the State. Long ago this lesson was learned by cities. In California, as in many states, all of our cities elect their officials without regard to party affiliations at all, and without party designation. Why? Because experience taught these cities that thus they obtained better officials and greater efficiency. It is within the memory of all of us that these cities formerly elected their officials—city clerks, and the like—because of their partisan affiliations. Progress in city government swept from existence this old system, that had obtained so long, and its destruction was necessary in order that the best government be obtained. Recently the counties of the State adopted the plan that has been in vogue in cities, and elected all of the county officials without party designation. Inquiry among the counties has demonstrated that this method has met with almost universal approval, and it is hoped that counties, in service, will be benefited just as the cities, in service, have been benefited. We now suggest applying the principle to the State as well, so that candidates for State positions will come before the people upon what they themselves are, not upon what their ancestors were, that they will ask the suffrages of the electorate upon their record or lack of record, their merits or their demerits, rather than upon the blind partisanship of themselves or their forefathers. There is nothing thus presented to you that seeks to destroy or even to affect political parties nationally. The government of the State has become now a matter of efficient business management, and efficient business management may be best obtained without politics. The one argument most frequently heard against the course we suggest, is that parties stand for definite policies, and that they are necessary therefore to preserve or to adopt some definite governmental tenets, and that for the adoption or failure to adopt these tenets, responsibility is fixed upon the party in power. The fallacy of this argument is found within the memories of all of us. In the State government today, none holds a particular party responsible for any specified act. All hold responsible the individual who is supposed to have caused the act. In the government of municipalities no party ever was held responsible for the acts of its agents who were officials, but the individuals were held responsible. In the government of the county today for the specific act of an official, no party is held responsible, but the individual himself must answer to the people. Were the subject one of national import, which it is not, events of recent occurrence could readily be cited to show that the theory of party responsibility is now a mere political fiction. If a party be in charge of a corrupt boss or a number of corrupt bosses, to speak of party responsibility is absurd. If a party solemnly presents to the people a platform with well understood and thoroughly interpreted tenets, and the individual in power deliberately ignores the party's pledges, the responsibility rests with the individual. But in a political subdivision like the county, or the State, experience the greatest teacher of all, has given us the absolute knowledge that there is, in reality, no party responsibility for the acts of individual officials. The people of the State of California at the recent election, themselves destroyed partisanship in California, and they said just as plainly as it was possible for them to say, that in the selection of their officials blind partisanship should play no part. If the voice of the people so recently heard shall cry with it the mandate of the people non-partisanship in our State elections will be assured.

While political economists may often speak of the necessity of parties, there is none but decries blind party worship. Blind partisanship is ever the refuge of the unworthy politically, and it is he who dares not to exploit himself or his record that insists upon ignorant, unyielding and unswerving party fealty. Of late years we have emerged from the darkness, and we have emancipated our cities and our counties. It is our fond hope that in this, as in other steps of progress, we may point the way for our sister states.

UNEMPLOYMENT

In the latter part of 1913, a condition which, perhaps, in some degree, had always existed in our State became critical or acute. Those who were out of employment began to organize, and what had existed for many years, but which in its unorganized or unmassed state, had attracted little public attention, became, when massed and organized, a burning problem. At that time I asked some of the best minds in California to aid the State in finding some solution of what apparently would be an ever recurring difficulty. Publicly I solicited contributions from those who had thought upon the subject, and privately I asked the commissions of the State dealing with social questions to devote themselves collectively and individually as well to the problem, and its remedy. I received very, very many communications and all of these finally were placed in the hands of the Commission of Immigration and Housing, consisting of Simon J. Lubin, Rev. E. J. Hanna, Mrs. Mary Gibson and Paul Scharrenberg and formally I asked this commission to investigate each communication and each proposed method of dealing with the matter and to report officially their conclusions. A similar request was also made of the Industrial Welfare Commission, composed of Judge Frank J. Murasky, A. Bounheim, A. B. C. Dohrmann, Mrs. Katherine Philips Edson, and Walter Mathewson. In addition to this, many interested and patriotic individuals were asked to render us aid in determining what the State could do. I am in receipt of reports from the Immigration and Housing Commission and the Industrial Welfare Commission. The former in great detail and at length discusses the subject, and I feel that personally I am deeply indebted to that Commission, and that the State as well owes it a great obligation. I will not attempt to discuss with you the causes of unemployment, nor to trace the situation historically. I lay aside as well those suggested solutions which involve the destruction of the social fabric. What action we take must be taken within the limits of the law and the constitution, as they exist today. We can not, with the power that is ours, issue millions of bonds or take over enormous tracts of land, and generally speaking, therefore, plans involving the acquisition of all of the land of the State of California, that is vacant, and the issuance of all the bonds that may be required to relieve suffering, may be eliminated. Very many good people have come to me in the past few months, with various elaborate plans, and indeed, to no subject has greater thought been given than to this subject under consideration. Many of those who understand, and understanding, have their hearts enlisted, present schemes of relief in which the ultimate object sought—the relief to be given—is clear, but in which the initial work and the details are forgotten. I acknowledge the sympathetic interest of all of those who have been working for the common good in this matter, and while many of the plans proposed are impossible of execution, they detract nothing from the gratitude that I feel for the earnest purpose with which they have been worked out.

I commend to you the report of the Commission of Immigration and Housing and ask your very careful consideration of that report. What engages me, as the executive head of the government, is not a philosophical discussion of unemployment, in which I confess an intense interest, but what, practically, can be done with this condition that now confronts us.

All agree that the problem, after all, is national in character, and that if there is ever a real solution of it, this solution must come from the nation. What we, as a State, can do is merely palliative, and is very little, indeed. All, however, agree upon one concrete thing, and that is that we may slightly aid by establishing free employment exchanges. These free employment exchanges are merely free employment offices, maintained by the State, in different localities of the State, the design of which is to bring the man and the job together. They can not make jobs, but by a system of daily exchange they may shift unemployed from one locality where there is no work, into another where there may be some. These agencies as well can undertake the registration of the workers themselves and thus prepare to separate the unemployed into various classes. The greatest difficulty has been found, not with the man who really wants to work, and is out of work, but with the man who is out of work from choice and who spends his time with his fellows, in agitation, inciting violence and disorder. The man who seeks work and can not find it, and who really belongs to the unemployed class, deserves not only our sympathy, but the most earnest effort of which we are capable. For him, there is naught we are able to do, that will not be done, and in his behalf, for a year past, the State has been devoting itself as well as it could to his problem. The other part of that problem that comes from the individual who will not work when work is offered him, who desires neither employment for himself nor those about him, who preaches disorder, violence and anarchy, presents an entirely different question, and it is my hope that we may so register the unemployed in the State this year that we may thoroughly separate the one class from the other.

The Commission of Immigration and Housing is conducting its investigations along the lines suggested in its recommendations and during your session its activities will be duly reported to you. The endeavor will be made to defer some work both private and public that can be done in any season of the year, until the period in winter when there are most men out of work. There would be little wisdom in advertising to the world that California intended to provide work for the unemployed during the winter months, and whatever may be said upon this point therefore should most guardedly refer to those already in our midst, and for reasons that are obvious to you, I do not discuss this phase of the matter in detail.

In March, 1914, I asked the aid of the California Highway Commission and the experiment was tried in that month of endeavoring to provide work for a few of the unemployed. The results of this very modest experiment are interesting.

A model camp, near Shingle Springs, which was something of a show place, was constructed by the State. In its sleeping arrangements, sanitation of kitchen, dining room, toilets, stables, etc., policing of the premises, shower bath facilities, etc., this model camp offered as great comforts as the average man possesses. Commissioner Stern advises me that the Highway Commission on the 19th of March, asked the Relief Committee of San Francisco to furnish 100 men immediately for work upon the State highway in this model camp. Preference was given to men with families. On March 22d the first men arrived and others continued to arrive until the 27th. The Highway Commission on its requisition and request for 100 men received only 60, and were never able to secure the full quota. The men were paid $2.25 per day, which was slightly under the minimum wage on state work. They were charged 75 cents per day for board which was the actual cost. Their transportation was furnished to them. Of the men received, 28 per cent of them were 60 years or older, 48 per cent between 40 and 60 years and the remainder under 40 years. They averaged 48 years of age. It was anticipated, of course, that because of their condition they would be below par in efficiency. At first it was estimated that they were 40 per cent inefficient, but the percentage became somewhat less as the men became hardened to the work. Of the men employed nine quit during the first week, eight during the second week, three during the third week, and by the middle of May, the entire sixty had drifted away, practically of their own volition. Their departure seemed coincident with the coming of warm weather. Mr. Stern adds to his report:

"From the standpoint of value received the experiment was not a success to the State. From the standpoint of humanity and the State's moral responsibility toward its dependents the experiment probably offered a temporary relief that was worth while."

This highway work was done in March on a mountain road. You will observe preference was given to men with families. Twenty-eight per cent were over 60 years of age; 48 per cent between 40 and 60 years. In this, is the story of our problem and its pathos.

What can be done immediately in the matter of unemployment—the creation of the free labor exchanges—I ask of you. Otherwise than this, we may add that the State is devoting itself to the problem and within its limitations, will pursue an enlightened policy.

DIRECT LEGISLATION

I am quite as strong an advocate of direct legislation and the recall as when in 1911, we campaigned the State asking their adoption. In the recent election, direct legislation stood the acid test. Upon the ballot were forty-eight propositions, too many all concede but who will deny that the questions submitted were decided intelligently and ably. Those who have insisted that our people have the ability, intelligence and discrimination to legislate for themselves, in the most severe test of popular rule that could be devised, have been wholly justified. We may have disagreed with the uses to which some individuals have put the initiative and referendum, but none can question the intelligence or aptness of the ultimate determination by the people. It would be idle to deny, however, that certain abuses have arisen just as abuses in the early trial of new policies ever will arise. It is our duty to remedy those abuses, if possible, and therefore, I direct your attention to the fact that solemn acts of the legislature have been held up and presented to the people by referendum upon petitions that in part, at least, were fraudulent. The fish and game bill was passed by the legislature, signed by the Governor, and received the solemn sanction that the constitution requires for the making of a law. A referendum petition was presented against this bill, part of which was founded upon rank forgery. The referendum of the redlight abatement bill was in part composed of forged signatures. It is stated that the first recall petition presented against Senator Grant in San Francisco, likewise had upon it many forged signatures. The initiative and referendum are the very highest prerogatives of the people. To permit their use through fraud or forgery is to pollute at its very source our government. So scandalous were the frauds upon the referendum petitions, that some months ago, I asked the Attorney General to investigate them and to take charge of cases pending in San Francisco. Recently, I have asked him to advise us of what, in his opinion, may be done to prevent the recurrence of these frauds in the future. Within a brief period, the Attorney General will report to me and I shall take pleasure in transmitting to you that report.

I ask your very earnest attention to the abuses of the initiative, referendum and recall, and that you pass such appropriate legislation as will, in your view, prevent those abuses hereafter.

RURAL CREDITS.

For some years past in the United States, among those who realize the importance of developing and encouraging agriculture, the question of extending credit to farmers in order that the land might be rendered more productive, or to those about to acquire agricultural lands, has been widely discussed. Finally the discussion has crystallized into a general advocacy of a system of rural credits. The first rural credit system was developed in Prussia in 1770, and was originally established for the relief of the larger land owners. Finally, nearly a century later, the plan was applied to the small farmer, and for him perfected, and from that time it has grown and has been a source of untold advantage, not only to the individuals but to the state as well. Great Britain very recently has proved its beneficent results in dealing with the land question in Ireland. Australia and New Zealand have carried out with marked success and extraordinary benefit their rural credits plan. California presents a singularly fertile field for the development of a system of rural credits, and limitless are our possibilities if such a system could be carried out as successfully as it has been in the countries mentioned.

Mr. Harris Weinstock on the one hand and Mr. D. W. Ross, on the other, have submitted the detail of a rural credit system, the one depending upon cooperation, and the other upon the establishment of a state bank. It is not my wish, and in this I am sure you will agree with me, to rush hastily into any particular scheme. My hope is that we may finally, in California, carry out a plan which will populate our rural territory, develop it thoroughly, increase many times its productivity, and that will enable those who contribute to this result and go upon the land, to purchase that land and what is necessary for its cultivation or improvement upon long term payments with small rates of interest.

Such an undertaking as this is so vast and so important and fraught with such possibilities, that I suggest to you that a special committee with peculiar knowledge of matters of this sort, be appointed, to which committee will be referred all measures involving rural credit schemes; and which will devote the month of February, during the recess of the legislature, to a scientific study of the question and to the determination of whether or not, under our constitution, we may enter this new field of activity.

Our national government stands pledged to a system of rural credits; but in the stress of other matters has deferred action. Here in California, with an empire's domain, with a farming population far less than it should be, with land sufficient to accommodate and assimilate readily and easily ten times our present population, we may well investigate, and after due deliberation adopt a system elsewhere demonstrated—a system by which the wealth of the State is immeasurably increased, and the happiness of its citizens augmented.

I recapitulate to you the suggestions of this message:

- 1 Increase the rates of taxation of the corporations described.
- 2 Make the election of State officers non-partisan.
- 3 Create free labor exchanges.
- 4 Establish a system of rural credits.
- 5 Prevent abuses of the initiative, referendum and recall.

An occasion may arise, I shall communicate with you by special message. There are many matters, some of great importance and involving constructive policies, in which the State is engaged, and for which your effort and action will be asked. Our State has grown so rapidly, its resources are so unbounded, its activities so manifold, that within the limits of a single message, little more can be done than to indicate the most important of the subjects that engross us. To you for legislative sanction and to me for executive action this marvelous commonwealth is for the time entrusted. That we may in disinterested and patriotic spirit cooperate for the advancement, prosperity and happiness of the people is my fervent wish; and if, when our task is finished, we may leave our State and our people, a little better or happier because of us, our efforts will not have been in vain.

HIRAM W. JOHNSON, Governor

APPENDIX.

PARDONS.

GABRIEL GIRAUD, pardoned January 25, 1913. Convicted in the city and county of San Francisco of burglary and sentenced June 24, 1903, to a term of fifteen years at Folsom. He was paroled on June 24, 1910, and his sentence expired on December 16, 1912. His conduct had been exemplary in prison and after his release on parole, and many persons who knew him personally and came in contact with him joined in recommending that a pardon be granted in order to restore him to full rights of citizenship.

CHARLES JOHNSON, pardoned January 21, 1913. Convicted in San Francisco on two charges of burglary in the first degree and sentenced on April 25, 1903, to consecutive terms of fifteen years each at San Quentin. The second offense was based on the fact that he had passed through an adjoining room to enter the one which he robbed. He was only seventeen years old at the time and the pardon was granted after he had completed service of his first term. Favorable recommendation had been made by five Justices of the Supreme Court.

LEROY LOGAN, pardoned January 7, 1913. Convicted in Sacramento County of violating State drug law and sentenced July 9, 1912, to one year in San Quentin. The offense consisted of smuggling morphine into the county jail for use by Logan's sister, who was a confirmed drug victim and was then confined in the jail. His aged mother was wholly dependent upon him for support, and he had never been in trouble before. His pardon was recommended by Judge J. W. Hughes, before whom the case was tried, and by District Attorney E. S. Wachhorst, who conducted the prosecution.

ANDREW E. WARMINGTON, pardoned April 4, 1913. Pleaded guilty in the Superior Court of Los Angeles County to two charges of forgery and was sentenced to serve two consecutive terms at San Quentin, the first of five years and the second of two years. Pardon on the second sentence of two years was recommended by the Justices of the Supreme Court.

YEE FOO, pardoned May 5, 1913. Convicted on January 12, 1912, in Fresno County of murder and sentenced to life imprisonment at Folsom. Evidence adduced was wholly from Chinese witnesses, all of whom were members of rival tongs. The crime was committed in one of the wars of these organizations. Subsequent to trial and conviction, strong evidence was obtained showing that Yee Foo was not in Fresno County at the time. Seven members of the jury and Superior Judge George E. Church, former District Attorney D. S. Church, Deputy District Attorney Frank Kauke, and former Sheriff J. D. Collins recommended a pardon.

T. P. HAYDON, pardoned June 3, 1913. Convicted of murder in Trinity County and sentenced May 28, 1912, to twenty years at San Quentin. The prisoner was critically ill and the prison physician reported that he could not live more than a month or two. Application was made by relatives to take him home and favorable recommendation was made by President Dennis M. Duffy of the Board of Prison Directors and Warden John E. Hoyle.

JOSEPH ZILINCAR, pardoned July 1, 1913. Convicted in the police court of Los Angeles of vagrancy and sentenced on May 6, 1913, to a term of one hundred and eighty days in the city jail. W. W. Dodge, Prosecuting Attorney, and W. L. Williams, Police Judge, who imposed sentence, recommended clemency, setting forth that the prisoner had already undergone sufficient punishment.

WILLIAM J. DANFORD, pardoned July 28, 1913, the day before the expiration of his sentence. Convicted in Los Angeles County of delivering a false and forged telegram and sentenced in March, 1911, to three years' imprisonment at San Quentin. The term expired on July 29, 1913. Many reputable citizens of Los Angeles recommended a pardon after Danford had paid the penalty exacted by the law, in order that he might again enjoy full rights of citizenship.

CLARE W. FISH, pardoned August 13, 1913. Convicted in Los Angeles County of embezzlement and sentenced in March, 1909, to ten years at San Quentin. He had been on parole for two years and showed every evidence of earnest purpose to redeem himself. Superior Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, who presided at the trial and imposed the sentence, together with the man's employers and associates, strongly recommended clemency.

S. H. ABRAMS, pardoned on August 27, 1913, one day before the expiration of his sentence. Convicted in Fresno County of embezzlement and sentenced December 26, 1911, to two years in San Quentin. Clemency was recommended by Harris Weinstein and Aaron L. Shapiro of San Francisco.

JOHN L. OWEN, pardoned September 11, 1913. Convicted in Solano County of murder in the first degree and sentenced on July 17, 1900, to life imprisonment at Folsom. He was paroled on November 1, 1909, and the record of his conduct was excellent. Superior Judge A. J. Buckles and District Attorney Joseph M. Raines, of Solano, and E. M. Norton, Attorney at Law, at Healdsburg, recommended that a pardon be granted.

HARRY M. MCKEE, pardoned September 12, 1913. Convicted in San Diego County of conspiracy and sentenced to the county jail for three months and to pay a fine of $300, and in the event of failure to pay said fine, to imprisonment for one day for each $2.00 thereof. McKee had served the larger part of the prison sentence, and after investigation it was found that the demands of the law had been fully satisfied.

FRITZ HOFFMAN, pardoned September 15, 1913. Convicted in San Joaquin County of robbery and sentenced on April 26, 1908, to twenty years at San Quentin. He was paroled on March 1, 1911, and a showing of good conduct was made. A pardon was recommended by Superior Judge W. B. Nutter, who sentenced him, Rev. Father Dempsey, of San Francisco, and others.

CHARLES BUSS, also known as Joseph C. Buess, pardoned September 20, 1913. Convicted in Calaveras County of grand larceny and sentenced June 18, 1906, to serve one year at San Quentin. Completed his sentence on April 18, 1907. Many recommendations were filed in his behalf, certifying to his worthiness to exercise again the full rights of citizenship. As a miner he had been handicapped in the matter of locating mineral claims.

HENRY PRUNZEL, pardoned October 7, 1913. Convicted in Los Angeles County of rape and sentenced on January 6, 1910, to a term of twenty years at Folsom. The prosecuting witness filed an affidavit to the effect that Prunzel was not guilty, explaining that she had placed the blame on him in order to shield a boy friend who was the guilty party. Superior Judge Frank R. Willis, who imposed the sentence, recommended a pardon. Warden Jas. A. Johnston examined the case thoroughly and joined in the recommendation. The father of the girl believed Prunzel to be innocent.

EARL W. JOHNSON, pardoned September 26, 1913. Convicted in Kern County of burglary and sentenced to four years in San Quentin. His mental condition necessitated removal to the State Hospital at Stockton, where he recovered. Dr. Clarke, the Hospital Superintendent, gave it as his opinion that Johnson was insane at the time of his offense. Warden Hoyle recommended clemency and District Attorney Irwin had no objection to offer.

E. E. KIRK, pardoned October 1, 1913. Convicted in San Diego County of conspiracy and sentenced to six months in the county jail and to pay a fine of $300, and in the event of failure to pay the fine to imprisonment for one day for each $2.00 thereof. He had served three months in the county jail and it was clear that the demands of the law in the premises had been satisfied.

LEE B. WARREN, pardoned October 7, 1913. Convicted in Los Angeles County of grand larceny and sentenced September 20, 1909, to six years in San Quentin. A pardon was recommended by Superior Judge S. E. Crow, who imposed the sentence, and by Asa Keyes, Deputy District Attorney of Los Angeles County. Letters from employers vouched for his good conduct and earnest purpose.

WALTER J. MILLER, pardoned October 8, 1913. Convicted in San Joaquin County of forgery and sentenced February 27, 1908, to twelve years in Folsom. Clemency was recommended by W. B. Nutter of Stockton, who, as Superior Judge, presided at the trial and imposed the sentence, and by George F. McNoble, who, as District Attorney, conducted the prosecution; by Frank B. Briare, Chief of Police of Stockton; by Hilliard E. Welch, who cashed the forged check for Miller; by H. H. Adams, employer of Miller during period he had been on parole.

PERCY L. PETERS, pardoned October 8, 1913. Convicted in San Francisco of passing a fictitious check and sentenced on May 27, 1911, to three years in Folsom. He had completed his term of imprisonment and made a showing that he was entitled to another chance to exercise the full rights of citizenship.

HARRY R. RADCLIFFE, pardoned November 11, 1913. Convicted in San Francisco of murder in the second degree and sentenced on March 28, 1905, to seventeen years in San Quentin. He had been on parole about two years. Superior Judge Carroll Cook, before whom Radcliffe was tried and by whom sentenced, Lewis F. Byington, who, as District Attorney, conducted the prosecution, Miss Josephine T. Molloy, of San Francisco, H. G. Persons, J. W. Sullenger, Chester H. Rowell, and Sheriff W. S. McSwain, all of Fresno, and Frank W. Hetherington of Selma, recommended clemency.

NIELS H. HALD, pardoned November 11, 1913. Convicted in San Mateo County of rape and sentenced on January 23, 1909, to ten years in San Quentin. He was released on parole on May 1, 1911. Judge George H. Buck, who presided at the trial, and Franklin Swart, District Attorney, who prosecuted, recommended that a pardon be granted. An overwhelming number of testimonials as to the good character and belief in the innocence of the man was filed. Developments subsequent to conviction raised a grave question of doubt as to the justice of it.

THOMAS G. FLAHERTY, pardoned November 20, 1913. Convicted in San Francisco in 1902 of murder. Paroled in September, 1910. His conduct had been exemplary and many friends made urgent appeals in his behalf. Congressman John I. Nolan, Labor Commissioner McLaughlin, and many others urged clemency. There was every reason to believe that Flaherty would be an honorable and upright member of society.

BENJAMIN B. LEE, pardoned November 20, 1913. Convicted in San Francisco of manslaughter and sentenced to five years' imprisonment. While on parole he made a splendid record and justified all the representations friends made in his behalf. Only a brief period of his sentence remained to be served.

BERT FORD, pardoned December 12, 1913. Convicted in Sacramento County of attempt to commit petty larceny and sentenced on November 10, 1913, to ninety days in the county jail. Superior Judge Hughes, who imposed the sentence, and C. T. Jones, Chief Deputy District Attorney, who prosecuted the case, petitioned that a pardon be granted.

JAMES PAYNE, pardoned December 12, 1913. Convicted in San Francisco of robbery and sentenced on May 16, 1909, to fifteen years in San Quentin. He was eighteen years old when the crime was committed. He was paroled after he had been in prison about two and one half years to F. S. Peabody in Chicago, who had taken a deep interest in the young man. The police officials of Chicago joined with Peabody in appealing for a pardon, giving strong assurance that Payne had, under new influences, developed a splendid type of manhood.

CLAUDE MAYFIELD, pardoned December 18, 1913. Convicted in Mendocino County of destroying jail property and sentenced on May 2, 1913, to two and one half years in San Quentin. The offense was the result of a drinking spree. He was about twenty-one years old. His family and friends, among them Martin C. Arthur, Justice of the Peace, E. M. Whitney, Rev. Hugh Jackson, and E. H. Roth, Mayor, all of Willets urged that further imprisonment would only break the spirit of the young man and gave assurance that if he were released they would all join in an effort to place him under new influences and cure him of the habit of drink. It was clear that the young man had learned a sufficient lesson and that no good purpose would be served by further imprisonment.

HARRY WILLIAMS, pardoned December 20, 1913. Convicted in San Joaquin County of two charges of grand larceny and sentenced on October 25, 1904, to a term of eight years and nine months, running cumulatively, at Folsom. After having served nearly six and a half years, he was released on parole. A showing was made that the total of the sentences was too severe a penalty. Judge Robert M. Clarke, District Attorney Don G. Bowker, Sheriff E. G. McMartin, James Mack, all of Ventura, and Geo. P. McNoble of Stockton, who was assistant district attorney of San Joaquin County when Williams was convicted there, recommended a pardon.

JOHN E. BURKE, pardoned December 22, 1913. Convicted in Sacramento County of robbery and sentenced on February 9, 1898, to twenty-five years at Folsom. He was nineteen years of age at the time. He had been on parole for five years and in every way justified the confidence reposed in him. Only two months of his sentence remained. Clemency was recommended by Chief Justice W. H. Beatty of the Supreme Court and by Associate Justices F. M. Angellotti, M. C. Sloss, F. W. Henshaw, W. G. Lorigan. Appellate Justice E. C. Hart, who, as Superior Judge of Sacramento County, presided at the trial, and District Attorney E. S. Wachhorst of the same county, and Sheriff Frank Barnett of Alameda County, also urged a pardon.

GEORGE ALLEN BEATTY, pardoned January 9, 1914. Convicted in Los Angeles County of burglary and sentenced July 29, 1909, to eight years in Folsom. He was paroled May 1, 1912. Superior Judge Willis and all the officials connected with the prosecution of the case, together with Dr. John White of Sacramento, by whom Beatty had been employed, urged clemency.

GEORGE A. BESSETTE, pardoned January 23, 1914. Convicted in Los Angeles of robbery and sentenced on November 17, 1892, to ten years' imprisonment. He was again sentenced, on November 29, 1899, on a second conviction of robbery in Los Angeles, to a term of twenty years. He was discharged on May 28, 1910, after he had paid the full penalty exacted by the law. Bessette had married and was establishing a home. He was clearly entitled to exercise again the full rights of a citizen. A favorable recommendation was made by Associate Justices F. M. Angellotti, F. W. Henshaw, W. G. Lorigan, H. A. Melvin and Lucien Shaw, of the Supreme Court.

EDWIN S. ROWLAND, pardoned January 30, 1914. Convicted in Sonoma County of embezzlement and sentenced on April 23, 1908, to six years in San Quentin. A pardon was granted on the day his term expired. Superior Judge Emmett Seawell and District Attorney Clarence F. Lea of Sonoma County, James Mason, City Marshal of Healdsburg, and Herbert W. Slater, member of the Assembly, and other citizens of Sonoma County, joined in the appeal in behalf of the prisoner.

JOHN S. DFLANCEY, pardoned February 7, 1914. Convicted in Alameda County of embezzlement and sentenced to six years in San Quentin, where he was received on December 29, 1909. The pardon was made effective on day of release. Recommended by Superior Judge Win. H. Donahue, Rev. Elbert R. Dille, John W. Stetson, and other citizens of Alameda County.

CLARENCE HINES, pardoned February 7, 1914. Convicted in San Francisco on two charges of robbery and sentenced on December 19, 1907, to serve two sentences of ten years each in San Quentin. He was sixteen years of age at the time of his offense. He had served more than six years. The prison physician, Dr. Stanley, and Warden Jas. A. Johnston, reported that the physical condition of Hines was very poor. The pardon was recommended by Associate Justices H. A. Melvin, F. M. Angellotti, F. W. Henshaw and W. G. Lorigan, of the Supreme Court.

LUCIEN T. HEALEY, pardoned February 19, 1914. Convicted in Los Angeles of murder and sentenced on January 24, 1895, to life imprisonment. He was paroled in June, 1911. Superior Judges Leslie R. Hewitt and F. G. Fernalyson made emphatic representations that a pardon was deserved. They declared that there were extenuating circumstances and that seventeen years of actual imprisonment and two years of parole were sufficient punishment. Other citizens of Los Angeles strongly urged that Healey be granted his freedom.

JACOB S. VOLRS, pardoned February 9, 1914. Convicted in Placer County of burglary and attempted jail breaking, and sentenced January 5, 1909, to serve a sentence of seven years and two years running cumulatively. He was nineteen years of age at the time of his conviction. He had already completed service of the seven-year sentence and several months of the two-year sentence. It was shown that he was a farm boy who had run away from his Dakota home and become implicated in crime chiefly through associations he formed while beating his way across the continent. A pardon as to the two-year sentence for jail breaking was recommended by Chief Justice W. H. Beatty and Associate Justices H. A. Melvin, M. C. Sloss, F. M. Angellotti and F. W. Henshaw, of the Supreme Court.

JACK FRENCH, pardoned March 12, 1914. Convicted in San Diego County of burglary in the second degree and sentenced on May 14, 1913, to serve one year in San Quentin. ALBERT PIERCE COOMBS, pardoned March 25, 1914. Convicted in Sacramento of assault to murder and sentenced December 21, 1908, to ten years' imprisonment. He had been out on parole for a year. Superior Judge J. W. Hughes, District Attorney E. S. Wachhorst and others recommended a pardon. Coombs had made a splendid record while on parole and was giving valuable aid and service in church and reform work.

EDWARD KAELIN, pardoned April 6, 1914. Convicted in Sacramento County of rape and sentenced on May 2, 1905, to forty-five years' imprisonment at Folsom. The offense was statutory. Appellate Justice E. C. Hart, who, as Superior Judge, had tried and imposed the sentence, and A. M. Seymour, who, as district attorney, conducted the prosecution, recommended a pardon. Kaelin had been on parole for a considerable period and his record was excellent.

MOSE A. ANDERSON, pardoned April 13, 1914. Convicted in San Francisco of assault to murder and sentenced on March 15, 1912, to three years in San Quentin. He had been on parole since July, 1913. Superior Judge Wm. P. Lawlor and the district attorney, together with numerous friends of Anderson's, recommended clemency.

GEORGE B. CRANDALL, pardoned May 5, 1914. Pleaded guilty on July 20, 1900, in Amador County to burglary and sentenced to two years in San Quentin. District Attorney M. G. Snyder of Amador County and former District Attorney C. P. Vicini of the same county, Rev. Robert Sesnon of Mill Valley and W. G. Morrow of Sausalito joined in the appeal for clemency. Crandall had paid all the penalty exacted by the law and for several years had conducted himself in a manner to earn regard and respect of all those who came in contact with him. The pardon was granted to restore him to full rights.

PERCY PEMBROKE, pardoned May 18, 1914. Convicted in Alameda County of robbery and sentenced April 15, 1907, to a term of ten years in San Quentin. He was between fifteen and sixteen years old at the time. One month of his sentence remained to be served. Pembroke had been on parole and abundant assurances of his good conduct were given. Among those recommending clemency for him were G. B. Daniels of Oakland, Superior Judge Everett J. Brown of Alameda County, August Vollmer, Chief of Police of Berkeley, Charles E. Snook and E. L. Peacock of Oakland, F. N. Renstrom of San Francisco, L. S. Church of Oakland, Associate Justice Henry A. Melvin, who, as Superior Judge, presided at the trial, Superior Judge Wm. H. Waste of Alameda County, former Governor George C. Pardee, Miss Olga Nethersole, and others.

WALTER THOMAS, pardoned May 22, 1914. Convicted in Santa Clara County of violating section 593 of the Penal Code and sentenced on July 28, 1913, to one year in Folsom. Clemency was recommended by District Attorney A. M. Free and by many reputable citizens of Santa Clara County. Thomas was twenty-two years old and only a few days remained of his sentence to be served.

WILLIAM M. AMER, pardoned May 22, 1914. Convicted in Madera County of embezzlement and sentenced June 28, 1907, to nine years' imprisonment in San Quentin. Only a week remained of his sentence to be served. He had been on parole and was living with his family in Madera County. Among those who recommended a pardon were Superior Judge Wm. Conley, District Attorney W. H. Larue, former District Attorney R. R. Fowler, Attorney Jos. Barcroft, Sheriff S. W. Westfall, Robert L. Hargrove, J. L. Butin, J. M. Griffin, and many other citizens of Madera County.

FRED WEINBURG, pardoned June 9, 1914. Convicted in Yolo County of burglary in the first degree and sentenced to five years' imprisonment in Folsom where he was received September 28, 1912. Superior Judge N. A. Hawkins and District Attorney A. G. Bailey of Yolo County represented that further imprisonment would be an injustice.

WILLIAM LEE WILLIAMS, pardoned June 13, 1914. Convicted in San Joaquin County of burglary and sentenced to one year in San Quentin, where he was received December 9, 1901. He completed service of this sentence on October 6, 1902. Four years later he was convicted of grand larceny in Contra Costa County and sentenced to eight years in Folsom, where he was received on December 6, 1906. He was paroled in 1911 and his sentence expired on April 6, 1912. Since his release he had made a worthy record. He had married, built a home and re-established himself in a manner to earn the high esteem of all those who knew him. Superior Judge John Hancock, former Assemblyman F. G. Stevenot, Philip Paché, and other citizens of Calaveras County made the appeal for clemency. A favorable recommendation was made by Associate Justices F. M. Angellotti, Lucien Shaw, M. C. Sloss, and F. W. Henshaw of the Supreme Court.

MILTON A. NATHAN, pardoned June 18, 1914. Convicted in San Francisco of a misdemeanor and conspiracy and sentenced on September 26, 1912, to pay a fine of $300. Superior Judge G. H. Cabaniss, who presided at the trial through some of its stages, and Superior Judge B. V. Sargent, who completed the trial as judge, Appellate Judge E. C. Hart, and many others recommended a pardon.

WILLIAM L. HARVEY, pardoned June 22, 1914. Convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced March 1, 1907, to fifteen years in San Quentin. He was paroled August 1, 1910. An investigation established the fact that Harvey had paid all the penalty that justice demanded. The authorities and many citizens of San Diego expressed emphatic opinions that the circumstances of the crime were such that Harvey had paid an ample penalty.

JAMES McROBERT, pardoned June 30, 1914. Convicted in Yolo County of murder in the second degree and sentenced August 24, 1904, to six years in Folsom. He was paroled November 1, 1909, and only a few weeks remained of his term. E. E. Gaddis, of Woodland, who was Superior Judge of Yolo County when McRobert was tried, and W. A. Anderson, of the same city, who, as district attorney prosecuted the case, recommended the pardon. Many other citizens testified as to McRobert's worthiness and urged that inasmuch as he had paid the penalty exacted of him, he be given a pardon in order that he might enjoy the full rights of citizenship.

ALLEN LEZINSKY, pardoned July 3, 1914. Convicted in San Francisco of uttering a fictitious check, and sentenced October 11, 1913, to one year in San Quentin. He was twenty-five years of age at the time of his offense. Superior Judge George H. Cabaniss, who imposed the sentence, made a strong appeal that Lezinsky's application for a pardon be granted. Dr. Martin A. Meyer, of San Francisco, and others also petitioned clemency.

HENRY SIEMER, pardoned July 23, 1914. Convicted in Alameda County of rape and sentenced on January 30, 1896, to a term of twelve years in Folsom. He completed service of his term on September 28, 1903. Chas. E. Snook, who was district attorney when Siemer was convicted, the present district attorney of Alameda County, and other officials and citizens recommended a pardon at this time in order that Siemer might enjoy the rights of citizenship.

JOHN H. JOHNSON, pardoned July 25, 1914. Convicted in Kings County of burglary and sentenced to nine years' imprisonment in Folsom, where he was received on January 4, 1896. He completed his term in December, 1901. District Attorney Rowen Irwin, of Kern County, and District Attorney J. L. C. Irwin, of Kings County, recommended that Johnson was worthy of exercising the full rights of citizenship.

J. T. GRUBBS, pardoned August 31, 1914. Convicted in Butte County of murder in the second degree and sentenced March 8, 1899, to a term of thirty years in San Quentin. Superior Judge H. D. Gregory, District Attorney Geo. F. Jones, Sheriff J. B. Webber, J. A. Tyler, C. E. Porter, E. C. Wilson, County Clerk E. C. Belding, and many other officials and citizens joined in the petition in behalf of Grubbs. An investigation of the circumstances of the offense made it appear that the sentence was unduly severe and the conduct of Grubbs while he was on parole showed that he was entitled to consideration.

CHARLES H. MILLS, pardoned September 16, 1914. Convicted in San Francisco of rape and sentenced on May 10, 1913, to serve five years in San Quentin. The pardon granted on the urgent recommendation of Superior Judge G. H. Cabaniss, who had imposed the sentence and who had expressly stated on that occasion that the minimum sentence established by law was in this instance excessive punishment, and that after a period of a year he would appeal to the executive authority to reduce the penalty.

GEORGE SHELLEY, pardoned September 21, 1914 on condition that he pay one half of the amount of the fine. Convicted in San Diego County of resisting an officer and sentenced to pay a fine of $500 and to be imprisoned in the county jail for six months. Superior Judge T. L. Lewis, before whom the case was tried and by whom the man was sentenced, recommended the clemency that was extended. The condition was subsequently complied with and the pardon became effective.

ALEXANDER W. McPHERSON, pardoned September 30, 1914. Convicted in San Francisco in May, 1891, of obtaining money by false pretenses, and sentenced to serve one year in San Quentin. He was again convicted in San Francisco in December, 1905, of extortion and sentenced to serve eighteen months in San Quentin. In both instances he paid all the penalty the law demanded. Chief Justice Matt I. Sullivan and Associate Justices F. W. Henshaw, F. M. Angellotti, and Lucien Shaw, of the Supreme Court, recommended that McPherson be pardoned. Superior Judge F. H. Dunne joined in the recommendation.

WENDELL D. SMITH, pardoned November 18, 1914. Convicted in San Francisco of uttering a fictitious check and sentenced to serve three years in the State Prison at San Quentin where he was received on March 19, 1914. Warden Jas. A. Johnston and the resident physician presented a statement to the effect that the prisoner was in the last stages of tuberculosis and that death was impending.

COMMUTATIONS.

MANUEL BOMBEIA commuted on February 1, 1913, to life imprisonment. Convicted in Orange County of murder in the first degree and sentenced on July 28, 1912, to be hanged. Superior Judge Z. B. West, before whom the case was tried and by whom sentence was imposed and the District Attorney who conducted the prosecution recommended that the death penalty be commuted.

GEORGE MARACICHI, commuted April 4, 1913, from a term of fifty years to ten years. Convicted in Contra Costa County of dynamiting. The testimony showed that Maracichi was merely a tool of another person. Superior Judge R. H. Latimer and District Attorney A. B. McKenzie and H. V. Alvarado, former District Attorney, and Sheriff R. R. Veale recommended that sentence be commuted.

LAWRENCE MARACICHI, commuted on April 4, 1913, from twenty years to a term of ten years. Convicted in Contra Costa County of dynamiting. Evidence showed that he and his brother were mere tools of one Barnovich. Favorable recommendations were made by Judge R. H. Latimer, District Attorney A. B. McKenzie, former District Attorney H. V. Alvarado and Sheriff R. R. Veale.

J. L. HUTCHINSON, commuted on September 12, 1913, from life imprisonment to a term of ten years. Convicted in San Joaquin County of murder in the first degree and sentenced April 22, 1908. Superior Judge W. B. Nutter, before whom the case was tried and by whom sentence was imposed, represented that the verdict should have been for manslaughter and strongly urged that the sentence be reduced. Superior Judge J. A. Plummer, also of San Joaquin County, and George F. McNoble, former District Attorney, who prosecuted Hutchinson, and many citizens joined in the recommendation.

WALTER H. WESTWOOD, commuted on September 17, 1913, from life imprisonment to a term of twenty years. Convicted in the city and county of San Francisco of highway robbery and sentenced November 24, 1906. Superior Judge Frank H. Dunne, who sentenced the prisoner, Superior Judge Frank A. Murasky, and the District Attorney recommended clemency. Westwood was only sixteen years old when the crime was committed and was led by a spirit of boyish adventure and by the dominance of older and more vicious companions to engage in crime.

AUGUST GEBER, commuted on September 22, 1913, from death to life imprisonment. He was sentenced on January 13, 1905, in the city and county of San Francisco, after conviction of murder in the first degree. While an appeal to the Supreme Court was pending the records were destroyed in the San Francisco disaster in April, 1906. Subsequently an understanding was arrived at between the Supreme Court and Attorney General to make an appeal to me to commute the sentence to life imprisonment. The wiping out of the record had deprived the man of fundamental rights.

FREDERICK J. PETERSON, commuted September 26, 1913, from life imprisonment to a term of twenty years. Convicted in the city and county of San Francisco of murder in the first degree and sentenced November 23, 1906. He was seventeen years of age when the crime was committed, an orphan without friends or other influences than those he would encounter as a homeless boy. An expedition of boyish folly in which highway robbery was planned ended in murder. The purpose in commuting the sentence was to afford an opportunity to parole the prisoner.

WILLIAM McADAMS, commuted on September 29, 1913, from fifteen years to five years. Convicted in Santa Clara County of murder in the second degree. Judge John E. Richards, who presided at the trial regarded the verdict of the jury as unjust. District Attorney A. M. Free, Sheriff Arthur B. Langford, the twelve jurors, and many citizens joined in the appeal for clemency.

WILLIAM HENRY MEARES, commuted on October 7, 1913, from life imprisonment to twenty years. Convicted in San Francisco of robbery. He was seventeen years of age and was one of a group of boys who set on a career of adventure which ended in murder. The commutation was granted in order to afford an opportunity to grant a parole.

JAMES W. FINLEY, commuted on October 11, 1913, from death to life imprisonment. Convicted in Sacramento County of assault with deadly weapon with malice aforethought, the defendant being a prisoner undergoing life sentence and having made an attack upon a guard. No life was taken by Finley. James A. Johnston, then warden at Folsom, made a thorough investigation of all the facts and circumstances, the result of which was a recommendation that the sentence be commuted.

FRANKLIN D. McAULIFF, commuted on November 20, 1913, from life imprisonment to twenty years. Convicted in San Francisco of murder in the second degree and sentenced February 12, 1907. McAuliff was a companion in crime of Westwood, Peterson and Meares, whose sentences to life imprisonment had heretofore been commuted to twenty years. For the same reasons that clemency was granted to them, a commutation was granted to McAuliff.

SING, a Chinese, commuted on December 3, 1913, from twenty years to twelve years' imprisonment. Convicted in Butte County of rape and sentenced on March 27, 1906. The offense was statutory in character and it was clear that the interest of law and justice did not demand exaction of the sentence imposed. Judge J. T. Lennon of the Appellate Court and others familiar with the case joined in the appeal for clemency.

ANTHONY CURTIN, commuted December 22, 1913, from ten years to seven years and five months' imprisonment. Convicted in San Francisco of burglary in the second degree and sentenced on May 24, 1905. An appeal in his case was pending when the records were completely destroyed by the San Francisco fire of April, 1906, and he was thereby deprived of certain constitutional rights. After Curtin had been in the county jail for three years and nine months, restoration of the record was effected sufficiently to commit him to the penitentiary to begin service of his sentence. Counting the time of his imprisonment in the county jail, after his right of appeal was wiped out, together with that he had served in the prison, he had paid a penalty considerably in excess of a ten-year sentence. Clemency was recommended by Chief Justice W. H. Beatty and Associate Justices F. M. Angellotti, Lucien Shaw, M. C. Sloss, F. W. Henshaw, and H. A. Melvin, of the Supreme Court.

E. C. BURKE, commuted January 23, 1914, from twenty-five years' imprisonment to a term expiring January 24, 1914, conditional upon his departing from the State of California, and returning to his parents in New York. Superior Judge Peter J. Shields, who imposed the sentence, urgently appealed for clemency, setting forth that it had transpired that the offense was not of so aggravated a character as appeared at the trial. Warden J. J. Smith of Folsom personally joined in the recommendation.

JOHN WELCH, commuted February 4, 1914, from five years to two years' imprisonment. Convicted in San Joaquin County of a crime against nature and sentenced January 3, 1914. Superior Judge J. A. Plummer, District Attorney E. P. Foltz, and Deputy District Attorney C. P. Rendon made urgent appeal for the reduction of the sentence.

EVAN B. JOHNSON, commuted on March 18, 1914, from four years to one year. Convicted in San Joaquin County of uttering a fictitious check and sentenced May 26, 1913. He was a victim of alcohol and his offense was committed while under its influence. Warden J. J. Smith, Folsom Prison, recommended a reduction of sentence, setting forth that the man had undergone sufficient punishment to learn an effective lesson.

CHEW LIN JAN, commuted on August 28, 1914, from life imprisonment to a term expiring August 29, 1914, on condition that he on that day depart for China and never return to the United States of America. Convicted in San Francisco of murder in the first degree and sentenced to imprisonment in San Quentin, where he was received May 12, 1892. On May 25, 1909, he was removed on account of his mental condition to the State Hospital at Stockton. It is the policy of the State Hospital management to send Chinese patients back to their native country when their condition will permit and when friends give assurance of proper and humane treatment. Chew Lin Jan was hopelessly insane, and the demands of the law for punishment could never be exacted of him. Commuted on recommendation of Dr. F. W. Hatch, Superintendent of State Hospitals, and of the Supreme Court of the State.

FRANK BALLARD, also known as Anthony Kurfess, commuted August 31, 1914, from ten years' imprisonment to a term ending on September 2, 1914. Convicted in San Francisco of robbery and sentenced on June 9, 1904, to ten years' imprisonment in Folsom. He appealed from the judgment of conviction, and it was pending in April, 1906, when the records in the case were wiped out by the great conflagration. He remained in the county jail for four years awaiting disposition of his case, when finally the record was sufficiently restored in order that he might begin service of his term in Folsom. Associate Justices F. W. Henshaw, W. G. Lorigan, M. C. Sloss and Lucien Shaw, of the Supreme Court, Superior Judge F. H. Dunne, who presided at the trial, the District Attorney of San Francisco, Warden Jas. A. Johnston of San Quentin and Warden J. J. Smith of Folsom recommended clemency.

JOHN HENDRICKS, commuted October 13, 1914, from three years to a term ending on October 14, 1914. Convicted in Lassen County of assault to murder and sentenced to San Quentin, where he was received in November, 1913. Warden J. A. Johnston and the prison physician, Dr. L. L. Stanley, reported that the prisoner was near death's door, a victim of tuberculosis. Judge H. D. Burroughs and District Attorney G. P. Johnson, of Lassen County, and Carl Westerfeld, a member of the Fish and Game Commission, made favorable recommendations.

SUPPLEMENTARY ANNOUNCEMENT

I desire at this time to supplement the list of committee assignments, as just announced, by a tentative suggestion of a program for committee meetings, to which I invite the consideration of the various committee chairmen.

In this connection I would call attention to a similar suggestion I made at the session of 1913, as found on pages 123 and 124 of the bound volume of the Assembly Journal for that year. This suggestion of two years ago contained the following statement:

"All Assemblymen of previous sessions will recall the fact that it has not been unusual in the past to have two or three important committee meetings at the same time, and that it has been very usual to see committee meetings called and adjourned for want of a quorum. In this way, I believe, many days' time was lost, and many bills were passed out by a bare quorum of committee members * * *

"Accordingly, in the assignment of committees for this session, an attempt has been made to so assign the members of the Assembly to various groups that each group shall contain at least half the members of the Assembly, who may thus meet in their various committees at the same time with entire absence of conflict."

Following this recommendation, a schedule of committee meetings was arranged and carried out during the session of 1913; and I am sure that every member who has tried both plans will agree that the advantages of this attempt at orderly arrangement amply justified the trouble of putting it into execution.

Accordingly, this year I have gone a step farther than before and submit herewith a tentative schedule for committee meetings, modeled after the one adopted at last session.

It is hoped that the chairmen of the various committees will examine this schedule, and will, if it meets their approval either with or without amendment, secure for it at least a trial by resolution of the Assembly. As will be noted the two largest committees are scheduled for three meetings per week, while eleven other important committees are each given two meetings.

I would say, also, that I have taken up this matter with the Lieutenant-Governor and the President pro tem of the Senate to see if a similar arrangement could not be worked out there, to the end that members of the Assembly with bills before Senate committees may be assured of definite times when they can receive a hearing. I am pleased to be informed by these officers that the Senate committees have been appointed with this thought in mind, and that a committee is now working out a tentative schedule of Senate committee meetings.

It is my very strong desire that this plan for regular and definite committee meetings may commend itself to the members of the Assembly and may become a recognized action for this body, and that the several committee chairmen may see fit to make trial of a schedule something like the following:

REPORT OF STANDING COMMITTEE.

The following report of standing committee was received and read:

ON CONTESTED ELECTIONS

MR. SPEAKER Your Committee on Contested Elections, to whom was referred the contest of H. C. Bagby for the seat of Ira Earl Kramer of the 59th Assembly district, met pursuant to previous notice on January 8, 1915, at 11 45 o'clock a.m., with a full committee present, perfected their organization and authorized the preparation of separate copies of the statement of contest, answer and depositions filed in the case for each member, that all might be thoroughly familiar with the questions involved. Subsequently, on January 11, 1915, at 2 o'clock p.m., pursuant to previous notice, all of the Committee again met and took the oral testimony, under oath of both contestant and contestee, each member of the Committee propounding interrogatories.

The Contestant in his allegations, all of which are specifically denied by the Contestee, and answered by new matter as well, contends

1 That gross errors and irregularities were committed by the board of election in the 18th precinct, Santa Barbara, in that the polls were not opened until 8 o'clock a.m. on said day of election, and that the election board was not complete or properly organized.

2 That in each of the several election precincts of the 59th Assembly district, at said election, the boards of election committed errors in receiving and counting illegal ballots in favor of the Contestee and against the Contestant, that said boards of election counted ballots for the Contestee that should have been counted for said Contestant, and that said boards of election rejected certain ballots which should have been counted for said Contestant.

To all of which your Committee, after giving careful consideration to the evidence, both documentary and oral, introduced in the matter before it, respectfully reports the same back, with the following findings:

1 That the said Ira Earl Kramer was elected a member of the Assembly from the 59th Assembly district at the general election held in this State on the 3rd day of November, A. D. 1914, and that the said Ira Earl Kramer received 3,809 votes and the said H. C. Bagby received 3,803 votes, and that the Board of Supervisors canvassed the returns from said district, and in accordance with the above vote issued a certificate of election to said Ira Earl Kramer;

2. That the testimony submitted to the Committee does not show that any errors or irregularities were committed by the board of election of the 18th precinct in the city of Santa Barbara, county of Santa Barbara, State of California, or by any other person or persons at said general election of November 3, 1914, as alleged by said contestant, but that, on the contrary, said polls were opened at six o'clock a. m., and said board was organized as required by law;

3. That the testimony submitted to the Committee does not show that any errors or irregularities were committed in any of the other precincts of said 59th Assembly district by the boards of election thereof, or that any of said boards of election therein committed errors in receiving and counting illegal ballots in favor of said Contestee and against said Contestant, or counted ballots for the Contestee that should have been counted for said Contestant or rejected any ballots which should have been counted for said Contestant;

4. That there is no testimony which would warrant this Committee's recommending that the Assembly go to the expense of a recount of said election;

Wherefore, Your Committee respectfully recommends that the contest be dismissed, and that said Ira Earl Kramer retain his seat in the Assembly.

FIRST.

STATEMENT OF CONTEST.

In the matter of the election of the assemblyman from Fifty-ninth Assembly District of the State of California at the general election held in the State of California on the 3rd of November, A. D. 1914.

H. C. BAGBY, Contestant .	} Contest.
IRA EARL KRAMER, Contestee .

Now comes H. C. Bagby, the above named contestant, and files his written statement with the County Clerk of Santa Barbara County, State of California, contesting the election of said Ira Earl Kramer to the office of Assemblyman from the Fifty-ninth Assembly District of the State of California at the general election held in said State on the 3rd day of November, A. D. 1914, and alleges in that behalf as follows, to wit:

1st That the said contestant for more than ten years last passed for and next prior to said third day of November, 1914, was and is now a citizen of the United States and an elector of and resident within said Assembly district

2nd That at said election the following named persons were candidates for said office of Assemblyman, to wit: H. C. Bagby, contestant, Ira Earl Kramer, contestee, Mina Dominguez and Franklin B. Southwick.

3rd That the official canvass of the returns of the ballots cast at said election for said office for said candidates made by the Supervisors of said county of Santa Barbara, showed that said candidates received the following votes for said office, to wit: Said H. C. Bagby received 3,803 votes, said Mina Dominguez received 637 votes; said Ira Earl Kramer received 3,509 votes and said Franklin B. Southwick received 515 votes

4th That at said election in the eighteenth precinct in the city of Santa Barbara within the county of Santa Barbara, State of California, and in said Fifty-ninth District, gross errors and irregularities were committed by the Board of Election as follows, to wit: That the polls were not opened until eight o'clock a.m. on the day of said election; that A. Crane was appointed by the Board of Supervisors of said Santa Barbara County as a member of the Board of Election for said precinct, that said A. Crane did not attend at the opening of the polls of said precinct and did not attend or act as a member of said Board of Election; that on or about eight o'clock a.m. of the day of said election a Judge of said Board of Election at said precinct, sent out for a Miss Turner to come and act on said Board of Election in place of said A. Crane and said Miss Turner came and acted as a member of said Board of Election, that at the time Miss Turner was sent for as aforesaid, and sworn in to act as such member of said Board of Election, there were a number of electors of said precinct standing about said voting place, or polls of said precinct, one of whom offered to act on said Board of Election, but said Board of Election refused to accept the services of said elector or any other elector then about said polling place of said precinct.

That upon information which contestant believes to be true, and upon the same alleges: That in each of the several election precincts of said Fifty-ninth Assembly District at said election, the Board of Election thereof committed errors in receiving and counting illegal ballots in favor of the contestee and against this contestant, which illegal ballots if rejected, would have so reduced the ballots cast at said election for said contestee that the number of legal ballots cast for this contestant would have been greater than the number of legal ballots cast for the contestee

That upon information which this contestant believes to be true he alleges that at said election in each of the election precincts of said Assembly district the several boards of election of the various election precincts of said Assembly district counted ballots for the contestee that should have been counted for the contestant and had they been so counted they would have added three hundred and five votes to the aforesaid thirty-eight hundred and three votes, and would have correspondingly reduced the aforesaid number of 3,509 votes claimed to have been cast for said Ira Earl Kramer the contestee herein

That upon information which this contestant believes to be true he alleges that at said election the several boards of election at each precinct in said Assembly district, rejected two hundred ballots that should have been counted for contestant and had they been so counted the contestant would have increased the aforesaid thirty-eight hundred and three ballots to 4,003 ballots cast for this contestant at said election

That upon information which this contestant believes to be true he alleges that at said election he received a greater number of legal votes for said office of Assemblyman for said Assembly district than said Ira Earl Kramer received, or any other candidate

That on the 11th day of November, A. D. 1914, the County Clerk of Santa Barbara County under his official hand and seal issued his certificate to said Ira Earl Kramer, that he the said Ira Earl Kramer had at said election been elected to the office of Assemblyman of said Assembly district

Wherefore this contestant demands a recount of the ballots cast at said election for the said office of Assemblyman. This contestant further demands that the County Clerk of Santa Barbara County, State of California, issue a commission directed to two Justices of the Peace of said Santa Barbara County for the purpose of taking the depositions of such witnesses as the parties to this contest may wish to examine.

SECOND ANSWER TO CONTEST.

In the matter of the election of the Assemblyman from the 59th Assembly district of the State of California at the general election held in the State of California on the 3rd of November, A. D. 1914.

ANSWER TO CONTEST.

H. C. BAGBY, Contestant.

vs.

IRA EARL KRAMER, Contestee.

Now comes Ira Earl Kramer, the contestee in the above entitled matter, by his attorneys J. W. Smith and Wm. G. Griffith, Esq., and answers to the contest of the contestant herein H. C. Bagby, and for answer alleges and denies as follows:

1st Said contestee denies that in the eighteenth precinct in the city of Santa Barbara, county of Santa Barbara and State of California, in the 59th Assembly district of said State of California, gross or any errors and irregularities, or gross or any errors or irregularities were committed by the Board of Election, or by any other person or persons, as alleged in the contest herein of said contestant, or otherwise or at all, and denies that the polls in said eighteenth precinct, were not opened until 8 o'clock a.m. on the day of said election, and alleges the fact to be that the polls in said eighteenth election precinct in said city of Santa Barbara were opened according to law at 6 o'clock a.m. of the day of said election, and that all the members of the Board of Election for said precinct were present and acting, excepting one A. Crane; denies that on or about 8 o'clock a.m. or at any other hour or time of the day of said election, a Judge of said Board of Election at said eighteenth precinct or any other person sent out for a Miss Turner, or any one else, to come and act on said Board of Election in place of said A. Crane, except as hereinafter alleged, and alleges the fact to be that A. Crane, one of the members of the Board of Election of said eighteenth precinct, did not attend at the opening of the polls at 6 o'clock a.m. on the morning of said election, and there being no person present to serve on said Board in the place of said A. Crane, one Mrs. Turner, who resided near by in said precinct and was competent and qualified to serve, was sent for, and that the electors of said precinct present at that hour, to wit, at the hour of 6 o'clock a.m., then and there supplied the place of said absent member by appointing the said Mrs. Turner, as a member of said Board of Election, in the place and stead of said A. Crane, that she thereupon took and subscribed the oath required by law, entered upon her duties and served upon said Board as one of the members thereof, all in accordance with the law in such cases made and provided; denies that at the time said Mrs. Turner was sent for or appointed or was sworn in to act as such member of said Board of Election, as aforesaid, there were a number of electors of said precinct standing about said voting place or polls of said precinct, or that one or any of said alleged electors offered to act on said Board of Election, other than the said Mrs. Turner, and denies that said Board of Election refused to accept the services of said alleged elector or any other elector then about said polling place of said precinct, and alleges the fact to be that at the time said Mrs. Turner was appointed by said Board of Election to serve on said Board in the place of said A. Crane as hereinabove alleged, there were no other electors nor any other elector present willing or offering to serve on said Board, and that none of the members of said Board of Election nor any elector then and there present offered any protest or objection to the appointment of said Mrs. Turner as a member of said Board as aforesaid and that on the contrary her said appointment was with the unanimous consent and approval of all of the members of said Board and all of the electors present at said polling place.

2d Said contestee denies that in each or any of the several election precincts of said 59th Assembly district at said election the Board of Election thereof committed errors or any error in receiving and counting or in receiving or counting illegal ballots in favor of this contestee and against said contestant, and denies that any of said alleged illegal ballots or any ballots if rejected would have so reduced the ballots cast at said election for said contestee that the number of legal ballots cast for said contestant would have been greater than the number of legal ballots cast for this contestee.

3d. Said contestee denies that at said election in each or any of the election precincts of said Assembly district the several or any boards of election of the various election precincts of said Assembly district counted ballots for this contestee that should have been counted for said contestant, and denies that had said alleged or any ballots been so counted they would have added 305 or any other number of votes to the 3803 votes that said contestant received or that they would have correspondingly or at all reduced the number of 3806 votes cast for this contestee.

4th. Said contestee denies that at said election the several or any election boards of election at each or any precinct in said Assembly district rejected 200 or any number of ballots that should have been counted for said contestant, and denies that had any such alleged ballots or any ballots been so counted the contestant would have increased the 3803 ballots alleged to have been received by him to 4003 ballots.

5th. Said contestee denies that at said election said contestant received a greater number of legal votes for said office of Assemblyman for said Assembly district than this contestee, and alleges the fact to be that said contestee received a greater number of votes than said contestant received and a greater number of votes than any other candidate for said office of Assemblyman for said Assembly district.

SECOND.

Further answering the statement of said contestant this contestee alleges. That the Board of Supervisors of Santa Barbara county, did at its meeting in the Supervisors' chambers in the Court House in the city of Santa Barbara, county of Santa Barbara, and State of California, being the usual place of meeting of said Board, commencing on the 9th day of November, 1914, being the first Mouday after the said election, proceed to canvass the returns of the said election held on November 3, 1914, and among other things proceeded to and did canvass certain purported returns of said election from the following precincts, to wit: Careaga precinct, Cuyama precinct, Santa Barbara precinct No. 3, and Sisquoc precinct, notwithstanding your contestee objected to said purported returns of said Careaga precinct, Cuyama precinct, Santa Barbara precinct No. 3 and Sisquoc precinct, and to the count by said Board of Supervisors of the votes of said precincts as shown on said purported returns on the ground that the said purported returns from said precincts and each of them was not properly authenticated as required by law, in this, that the said returns were not and each of said returns was not signed or certified or authenticated by the election board of said precincts, and were and each was incomplete and defective by reason of said failure to so sign, or certify or authenticate, but said Board of Supervisors notwithstanding said objection, and of the failure of the election boards in said precincts to sign, or certify or authenticate said returns, and notwithstanding said defects appeared on the face of said returns, did proceed to and did canvass said returns, and failed and neglected to cause said defective returns to be corrected or completed by said several election boards in the manner required by law or at all, and that said incomplete and defective returns showed a greater number of votes cast for said contestant than for said contestee, in each of said precincts, to wit: Careaga precinct, Cuyama precinct, Santa Barbara precinct No. 3, and Sisquoc precinct, by reason whereof and of said illegal acts on the part of said Board of Supervisors in canvassing said returns from said precincts and counting the votes shown thereon, the contestant herein was given and there was counted for him 139 more votes in the canvass of said returns than this contestant, to which said contestant was not entitled.

Further answering the statement of said contestant herein said contestee alleges that the said Board of Supervisors designated No. 20 E. Cota street as the place for holding said election in the fourth precinct of the city of Santa Barbara, in said county of Santa Barbara, and that said No. 20 E. Cota street was the place designated for holding said election in said fourth precinct in said city of Santa Barbara by the election proclamation made and issued by the said Board of Supervisors at a regular meeting of said Board held on the 6th day of October, 1914, and which proclamation was thereupon and thereafter duly published as required by law: that the said election was not held at said No. 20 E. Cota street, in said city of Santa Barbara, nor was any order made by a Justice of the Peace residing in said township in which such precinct was and is situated or otherwise or at all, designating the house or place within the said precinct for the holding of said election nor did a majority of the Judges and Inspectors of Election for said precinct designate the place, within said precinct for holding the election nor were any notices posted as required by law or otherwise, or at all, but said election board of said fourth precinct of said city of Santa Barbara did arbitrarily proceed to and did arbitrarily hold said election for said fourth precinct at No. 16 E. Cota street, in said city of Santa Barbara; that at the time of the canvass of the election returns by said Board of Supervisors this contestee did object to the canvassing by said Board of Supervisors of said elections returns for said fourth precinct of the city of Santa Barbara on the ground that the same were irregular and void by reason of holding said election in said fourth precinct at a place other than the one designated by the said Board of Supervisors for holding said election in said fourth precinct and no other place being designated for holding the same as required by law or at all, but said Board of Supervisors arbitrarily and over the objection of this contestee proceeded to and did canvass said election returns for said fourth precinct of the city of Santa Barbara and count the votes shown thereon; that the return from said fourth precinct of the city of Santa Barbara showed a greater number of votes cast therein for said contestant than for this contestee, and by reason of said act of said Board in canvassing said returns of said precinct and counting the votes shown thereon, the said contestee herein was given and there was counted for him 19 more votes in the canvass of said returns than this contestee, to which said contestant was not entitled; that the said Board of Supervisors by reason of said illegal acts and arbitrary proceedings in canvassing the returns of said precincts so objected to by this contestee as aforesaid, made its declaration of the result of the votes cast for member of the Assembly to be that said H. C. Bagby received 3803 votes, that the said Ira Earl Kramer received 3809 votes, that the said Mina Dominguez received 637 votes and that the said Franklin B. Southwick received 515 votes. Whereas, in truth and in fact the legal returns of said election show on the face thereof and said Board of Supervisors should have made its declaration of the result of the votes cast for said member of the Assembly, that said H. C. Bagby received 3464 votes, that the said Ira Earl Kramer received 3628 votes, and that the said Mina Dominguez and the said Franklin B. Southwick each received a less number of votes than either said contestee or said contestant.

Wherefore, Said contestee prays that said contest be dismissed and said contestee be allowed to retain his seat as a member of the Legislature of said State of California, as Assemblyman from said 59th Assembly district.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

- By Mr. SMITH. Q Mr. Davies, you stated the polls opened at six o'clock?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q And the officers at that time were sworn?
- A They were sworn, yes,—what was there.
- Q There were five present?
- A Five of us, yes, sir.
- Q Mr. Crane being the absent member?
- A Mr. Crane was absent, yes, sir.
- Q As a matter of fact, Mr. Davies, you are somewhat hard of hearing, are you not?
- A Somewhat what?
- Q You are somewhat hard of hearing?
- A No, I can hear you well enough.
- Q Isn't it true that Mrs. Turner came at an earlier hour than the time indicated in your testimony?
- A I don't think so.
- Q You are not positive about that?
- A She did not come before quarter past seven, and she sat in a chair some five or ten minutes before Mr. Page was ready to swear her and give her the job she was supposed to hold.
- Q Who were present, and ready and willing to serve on the board prior to the time Mrs. Turner came?
- A Who was present?
- Q And ready to serve on the board?
- A I couldn't tell the names, because there was quite a good many voted between six and half past seven. I remember Mr. Rogers, I believe was the first one that voted, and there was quite a crowd behind him waiting to vote. I forget their names.
- Q What Mr. Rogers?
- A I don't know his Christian name. I did know it once, but I forget.
- Q What is his business?
- A Furniture. I believe he is in the furniture business. Clock building.
- Q There are two Rogers.
- A There are two brothers.
- Q That are in the furniture store?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q The father and son?
- A I think they are two brothers. I don't know whether father and son, or not.
- Q What did any of those bystanders say as indicating they were anxious to serve on the board? What remark was said?
- A I did not hear them make any remark, because Mr. Page never spoke to them about serving on the board.
- Q Then you don't know whether they were there waiting to serve on the board, or not?
- A They were waiting to vote.
- Q But were they there waiting to serve on the board?
- A That I couldn't tell you.
- Q Or do you know if they signified any willingness to serve on the board?
- A No, sir.
- Q Then why did you state they were parties waiting to serve on the board?
- A I suppose they might have been willing to serve on the board if Mr. Page approached them.
- Q Did you approach them?
- A No, sir. It was not my duty.
- Q Did you request anyone to approach them?
- A No, sir.
- Q What position did you occupy on the board?
- A Inspector.
- Q How do you fix the time, Mr. Davies?
- A I spoke to Louis Ruiz about the time. He was standing outside, and I asked him what time it was, and he said it was near half past seven.
- Q You gathered that then by a statement made by someone else who guessed at the time, isn't that true?
- A I guessed at the time?
- Q You received your information from outside sources—from a party who guessed at the time?
- A I think he took his watch out and looked at it. I am not sure now.
- Q You don't know?
- A No.
- Q Then why did you say he took his watch out, if you don't know?
- A He said he thought it was about half past seven.
- Q You are somewhat prejudiced in this matter?
- A Not at all.
- Q Then why do you testify positively to things, and then testify you don't know? You are a man who has served as a witness in other cases—other matters—and have served as a juror in court, and you are sufficiently familiar to know that you should only testify to those things that you know of your own knowledge? You know that, do you not?

A. I asked Mr. Ruiz the time; he says, "I think it is about half past seven," and took his watch out.

Q. You stated a moment ago that you didn't know whether he took his watch out or not. How do you reconcile that statement? You know this is a proceeding in which you are under oath. How do you reconcile that last statement with your former statement that you did not know whether he took his watch out or not?

A. Well, I don't know exactly about the watch—taking it out—but he made a break to take his watch out as I was standing there, and he says, "I think it is about half past seven."

Q. You say there were eight or ten standing around the polls at the time they opened?

A. Yes.

Q. Among those do you include the election board?

A. Sir?

Q. Among those do you include the election board?

A. No.

Q. Name the parties who were there?

A. I couldn't remember who was there. I was busy.

Q. Can you remember any of them.

A. I told you before the only one I remember is Mr. Rogers, and I think he was the first one that voted.

Q. What time did Mr. Crane come to the polls?

A. I couldn't tell you what time Mr. Crane came, but it was some time in the forenoon, I believe. I remember his coming and voting.

Q. Did not Mr. Crane decline to serve on the board?

A. That I don't know. He didn't tell me so. I think, if I remember right—I am not sure—but he made the remark he had been away, and didn't know he was on the board.

Q. About what time in the day was it that he appeared there at the polls?

A. I couldn't exactly remember, but as I told you before, I think it was before one o'clock in the afternoon—some time in the forenoon. I am not positive about that.

Q. Somewhere near one o'clock?

A. I couldn't tell you.

Q. Was it after twelve o'clock?

A. I am not sure about that either.

Q. It was after Mrs. Turner was there, and was sworn in?

A. What?

Q. It was after Mrs. Turner arrived and was sworn in?

A. Yes.

Q. And Mr. Crane did not offer to serve on the board?

A. No. I did not hear him.

Q. That's all.

MR. THOMAS. Q. Did Mr. Page ask any of the bystanders if they would act on that board?

A. I did not hear him if he did, sir.

Q. That's all.

 A. No, sir.

 A. No, sir.
 Q. That is all.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

By MR. SMITH: Q. Miss Davies, was there any objection made by the board, or by any member of the board, to getting Mrs. Turner to serve, at the time Mr. Page mentioned her name?

MR. THOMAS: The contestant objects, as irrelevant and immaterial.

A. No, there was not. Mr. Page proposed getting Mrs. Turner, and asked if anyone objected, and no one objected, so he sent for Mrs. Turner.

Q. What time did he send for Mrs. Turner?

A. I couldn't say, because I don't remember, but I know it was somewhere between seven and eight.

Q. That was the time he sent for her? I am asking now the time he sent for Mrs. Turner, not when Mrs. Turner arrived?

A. I couldn't say; I don't remember just what time he sent for her.

Q. He suggested getting Mrs. Turner right after the polls were opened in the morning,—six o'clock?

A. No, not right away; there had been some voting before. We thought Mr. Crane might turn up, and it was quite a little while.

Q. You don't know how long?

A. No, I don't.

Q. In the meantime the five members who were sworn and acted before Mrs. Turner arrived, went right on, from the time the polls opened, with the election?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And there was no one denied the right to vote during any of this interval?

A. No, sir.

Q. And there was no one there that offered to serve on the board of election?

A. No, I didn't hear anyone offer to serve.

By MR. THOMAS: Q. No one of the bystanders was asked to serve on the board?

MR. GRIFFITH: We object to that, as leading.

A. I didn't hear them ask anyone.

Q. You were very close by, were you not?

A. Yes, sir, right there.

Q. If such an offer had been made you would have heard it?

MR. GRIFFITH: We object to that as leading.

A. I think I would. I was right there at the time.

MR. SMITH: I would like to ask you one question. What was your position on the board?

A. Clerk.

MR. GRIFFITH: You may ask him.

Q Did Mr. Alfonso Crane act as an officer of the election board?

A No, I don't think I saw him. No, I don't think he was there.

Q Take the witness.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

- BY MR. SMITH: Q. Mrs. Turner, what time did you get to the polls?
 A. Between 6:15 and 6:45. I can't give you the exact time.
 Q. On your arrival were you immediately sworn in?
 A. No, sir; I waited until people who were there had voted.
 Q. About how long a time?
 A. Possibly ten minutes, or fifteen; I couldn't tell.

 A. No.
 Q. That is all.
 MR. THOMAS: Were the bystanders given any opportunity to object, or asked to object in any way, Mrs. Turner?
 A. I don't know as they were. I waited until they were through. The election board was all busy, and when they got through I was sworn in.

TESTIMONY OF A. L. PAGE.

A witness called by and on behalf of the contestant. Sworn.

DIRECT EXAMINATION.

- BY MR. THOMAS: Q. What is your name?
 A. A. L. Page.
 Q. Where do you reside, Mr. Page?
 A. 1517 De la Vina.
 Q. Were you one of the officers at the election held in this state last November, at the 18th precinct?
 A. I was.
 Q. In this city?
 A. Yes.
 Q. What office did you have?
 A. I was judge.
 Q. Who was the other judge?
 A. Mr. Catlin, I believe.

Q. What time did you organize the election board that morning?

A. Just about six o'clock.

Q. Was it complete?

A. No.

Q. Who was absent?

A. Mr. Crane.

Q. Alphonso Crane?

A. Alphonso Crane.

Q. At the time you organized the board that morning how many people were about the precinct,—the polling place?

A. Well, I am not sure, but in my opinion there were only two. That is, only the election board, and Mr. and Mrs. Rogers came about that time. Now, I am not sure as to whether they were there just at the time the board was organized, or just after. They were there—they voted first.

Q. Who made the proclamation of the organization of the board—anyone?

A. I couldn't say as to that.

Q. Who, if anyone occupied the place for which Mr. Crane was appointed?

A. Mrs. Turner occupied it.

Q. How did she come to occupy the place?

A. I made the suggestion to the board—I asked if there was any objection to Mrs. Turner serving on the board inasmuch as there was not anyone there to fill the place, and the board was there, and they agreed to it with the exception of Mr. Davies, he being at the further end of the table, about as far as from here to where the judge sits, and he apparently did not hear just what I said. I asked if there was any objection to Mrs. Turner serving on the board inasmuch as the board was not full, and the others agreed,—that is, Mr. Catlin and Miss Davies and Miss Knibbe, and at that time, possibly a minute or two after, Mr. Davies spoke up from the other end of the table saying that Mr. Tapley would be a good man to serve on the board, but after we had agreed,—as I supposed he had heard—up to that time I supposed he had heard what was said about Mrs. Turner—my little boy happened to be there, and I said to step over to Mrs. Turner's house and ask Mrs. Turner to come over, as Mr. Crane was absent from the board. He went immediately. Then, after he had gone, Mr. Davies spoke up and said Mr. Tapley would be a good man to serve on the board. I simply said, "Why, we have already sent for Mrs. Turner."

Q. With what particular party do you affiliate?

A. Progressive Republican.

Q. What?

A. Progressive.

Q. At the time you sent for Mrs. Turner how many people were about the polls that were not officers?

A. I don't think there was anyone there excepting possibly Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers, and I really believe they did not come until after this transaction was over.

Q. When Mrs. Turner came how many were there there?

A. Well I think there were a number, either voting or about to vote. Just how many I am not sure.

Q. Were you aware at that time of the law that required if there were a vacancy on the election board, it should be filled by the bystanders?

MR. GRIFFITH. We object to that on the ground that it is leading and suggestive, calls for the conclusion and opinion of the witness, and is incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

Q. Were you aware of that fact?

A. I knew that the board could be filled from the bystanders. I was not quite clear as to the law.

Q. Now, what time did Mrs. Turner arrive to take the position?

A. I should say between half past six and a quarter to seven.

Q. That is all.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

BY MR. SMITH. Q. Mr. Page, at the time you mentioned Mrs. Turner's name as a prospective member to fill the vacancy, it was made in the presence and hearing of not only the election board, but of any bystander that might have been there at the time?

A. Yes.

MR. THOMAS. We object, as irrelevant and immaterial.

Q. And was there any objection made by any person present to having Mrs. Turner fill this vacancy?

MR. THOMAS. We object on the same ground.

A. Not at all.

Q. Was Mr. Tapley present when Mr. Davies suggested his name, as being a good man to serve on the board?

A. No, sir.

Q. When did Mr. Tapley first show up in the election precinct that day?

A. I should say about one o'clock. It was after I got back from lunch.

- Q. Had he been there at any time before that that you know of?
 A. I hadn't seen him.
 Q. Was there anything further said after Mr. Davies mentioned Mr. Tapley's name, in regard to who should serve on the election board?
 A. That is, among the board, do you mean?
 Q. Among the board, or any of the bystanders, or any person who may have been present at the time Mr. Davies made this suggestion?
 A. I don't just get your question.
 (Last two questions read by the reporter.)
 A. No, there was not.
 Q. Are you an elector of the 18th precinct of the city of Santa Barbara?
 A. I am.
 Q. Were you such on the 3rd day of November of this year?
 A. Yes.
 Q. After the board was completed did anyone—at any time before Mrs. Turner was sworn in did any of the bystanders offer to serve on the board?
 A. No.
 Q. Did any of the bystanders suggest anyone to serve on the board?
 A. No.
 Q. Other than Mrs. Turner?
 A. No.
 Q. Was there any objection made at any time from the time Mrs. Turner's name was suggested up to the time of the closing of the polls and the completion of the count, to Mrs. Turner serving on the board as one of the election officers?
 A. No, sir.
 Q. Or anybody else suggested to serve in her place during that time?
 A. No, sir.
 Q. After the officers were sworn in, in the morning, at six o'clock, when did you send for Mrs. Turner?
 A. At once.
 Q. How far does she live from there?
 A. About a block.
 Q. Did you make any statement that you would not fill any vacancy on the election board until you had first ascertained whether Mr. Cline, the absent member, would show up?
 A. No, sir.
 Q. Did you want to see if he would show up before calling a third person to come in to fill the vacancy?
 A. No, sir.
 BY MR. THOMAS: Q. Mr. Page, you stated that none of the bystanders offered to serve on the board. Were they asked?
 A. I am not sure if there was anyone there excepting the election board.
 Q. You say nobody was asked except Mrs. Turner to serve on the board?
 A. No, sir.
 Q. That is all.
 BY MR. SMITH: Q. Did Mr. Davies, when he mentioned Mr. Tapley's name, make any further statement in regard to sending for him, or getting him there to serve on the board?
 A. No.
 Q. Just state the language he used?
 A. What he stated—he simply said that Mr. Tapley would be a good man to serve on the board.
 Q. That was all that was said?
 A. That was all, yes.
 Q. Now, in the meantime, your boy had gone over to speak to Mrs. Turner about the vacancy?
 A. Yes.
 Q. That is all.

TESTIMONY OF MRS. TURNER, RECALLED

- BY MR. SMITH: Q. On your way from your house to the polling place did you see Mr. Tapley?
 A. I did.
 Q. State where?
 A. In his yard.
 Q. Was there any conversation had between you and Mr. Tapley in regard to the election board, or the election?
 MR. THOMAS: We object as irrelevant and immaterial, and not proper cross examination.
 MR. GRIFFITH: I might state that the purpose of the question is to show that Mr. Tapley was at his home, and not at the polling place at the time the witness went from her home to the polling place to serve on the board.
 (Question read by the reporter.)

A. He asked me where I was going so early in the morning, and I said, "Why, I am going over to serve on the election board." He says, "Is that so?"

Q. How far is his residence from the eighteenth precinct?

A. One door nearer than my own.

Q. To the polling place?

A. Just one door nearer.

Q. Than your home?

A. Than my home.

Q. Was there anything further said in that conversation?

A. No.

Q. That is all.

TESTIMONY OF MR. DAVIES.

Recalled for further cross-examination.

BY MR. SMITH: Q. Mr. Davies, what political party do you affiliate with?

A. Democratic.

Q. That is all.

MR. THOMAS: Will you stipulate that these officers mentioned here as officers, with the exception of Mrs. Turner, were appointed by the board of supervisors of this county to act as such officers at the election held on the 3rd of last November, in precinct eighteen, of the city of Santa Barbara?

MR. GRIFFITH: No, we can't stipulate to that, because it is not the fact. That is, some of them were appointed to supply the positions of those who were selected by the board, and were not present.

MR. THOMAS: Who were they?

MR. GRIFFITH: I am informed Mr. Davies, was one.

BY MR. THOMAS: Q. Mr. Davies, were you appointed by the board of supervisors to act upon the election board in the eighteenth precinct, last November?

A. Mr. A. B. Williams was appointed. I took his place.

Q. How did you take his place,—by virtue of the appointment of the election board, or was there an amendment of the order, or something of that sort?

A. He came to me, I think about a week before the board—fully a week, and told me that he was afflicted with sciatica in the face, and he couldn't stand it at night time, in the cold, and he asked me if I would be willing to take his position, and I said I would talk to my daughter, because she did not want me to take the job myself—didn't think I could stand it, because she saw it was going to be a long job, counting all those amendments, and I said I would try it anyhow, and I would let Mr. Williams know, and I went over to see him two days before the election, and I told him I would try it.

Q. Was that the only appointment you had, simply as his proxy there?

A. I think I got an appointment from the supervisors. I think I did.

MR. GRIFFITH: How do you want to put your stipulation?

MR. THOMAS: That they were appointed legally by the board of supervisors to act as the election board of the eighteenth precinct of this city, held at the last election, the election of November 3rd, 1914.

MR. GRIFFITH: Yes, we stipulate to that fact.

MR. THOMAS: That is all.

MR. GRIFFITH: We have no depositions to take at the present time, but, of course, we do not waive our right,—in fact, we reserve our right to take depositions in this matter at a later time, before the convening of the legislature, or even after the convening of the legislature.

TESTIMONY

by H. C. Bagby and Ira Earl Kramer

S. Van Wagenen was duly sworn as reporter.

II. C. Bagby, being duly sworn, testified in his own behalf as follows:

CHAIRMAN McKNIGHT: Mr. Bagby, have you any further statement to make in regard to this matter, that is within the issues in the case?

A. Why, I do not know that I have any further statement to make, any more than this. My attorneys wanted to take up the propositions along the lines of irregularity and to throw out some precincts. I told them I would not serve as a member of the legislature under those circumstances, that if I were to serve as a member of the legislature they must show me that I had a majority of the votes cast: that I would not proceed along the lines of technicalities to throw out any precinct; that the vote was so close; and from the long hours that it took to count those votes, there must necessarily be many mistakes, as I had seen in different precincts tally clerks asleep on duty and they had to be awakened to make them tally the votes, and that I believed that we had a right to ask for a fair and impartial recount, that I didn't want any charge of fraud made, but simply that there had been a mistake made, and I believed it was simply an act of justice that we be given a recount, owing to the many irregularities and the long hours taken to count the votes—in a number of the precincts until Thursday noon. People going that long without sleep are not able to make an accurate count. I saw in different precincts where there would be a difference of the tally clerks and they would say "Well, we will let it go this time and make it up next time" and at one place I saw three members of the board (two of them ladies) who were completely given out—they went home and went to bed. Two of the others went away to get something to eat, some refreshments, leaving one member to watch the door.

MR. GELDER: What precinct was that?

A. Precinct No. 3 at Santa Maria.

MR. McKNIGHT: Did you take any depositions from that precinct?

A. No. I simply spoke of that to show that there would be great possibilities of mistakes, and that there being no way, our constitution provides that the legislature is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members, it, of course, prevents our taking it before the courts; otherwise a recount would have been had before. That is all I am asking: simply a recount of the ballots of the votes cast in Santa Barbara—I don't care whether you take them up and count all of them, and the one who has the majority to serve, or take them up as the boards of election did and go over them, or whether you be the sole judge yourself as to what is legal or otherwise. It is up to you. I am only asking that as a matter of justice you give me a recount.

MR. MEER: What precincts were those officials asleep in?

A. Precinct 3, Santa Maria.

Q. That is the same one where one was left on guard?

A. Yes.

Q. Is that your precinct—the one you vote in?

A. No sir.

Q. Who received the most votes in that precinct?

A. I did.

MR. GELDER: What time of day was that, that the party was left alone?

A. That was about twelve o'clock at night—Wednesday night.

Q. Were they counting at that time?

A. They were.

Q. The ballots had not all been counted?

A. No. They left one there to be the guard. No one was counting—simply walking up and down in front of the building.

Q. Guarding the ballots, is that the idea?

A. Yes sir.

MR. McKNIGHT: Where had the others gone, do you know?

A. Gone to get something to eat, some refreshments of some kind—didn't ask them.

MR. GELDER: Did you see them leave these precincts?

A. I did.

Q. Did you tell them they ought not to be leaving the precinct that way?

A. No, sir, I did not, because I believed they were entitled to some rest, not able to stand it. I saw a man who was sound asleep when the name was read and he said 212. Some person spoke to him and woke him up and he went on talking, and I thought that people who were in that state were not competent to count ballots correctly.

MR. WRIGHT: How did you happen to know of these alleged irregularities in precinct eighteen—were you present?

A. No, people who live in that precinct told me.

Q. Was Mr. Davies there? Do you know?

A. No, sir, I am not acquainted.

Q. Do you know Mr. Page and Mrs. Turner?

A. No, sir; I do not.

Q. Neither of them?

A. No sir.

MR. McKNIGHT · In your Santa Maria precinct No. 3, what was your majority?

A · Forty-nine.

MR. MEEK · Were there any recounts down in Santa Barbara at all—have there been to date?

A · In general election—no.

Q · Any contests?

A · No, sir.

Q · Were there any names written in on the ballots?

A · Why, there were a number of names written in—my name was written in a number of times, although it was printed on the ballots.

Q · What I was trying to find out was, whether there was any confusion on account of names being written in. In many parts of the state many names were written in, which tended to confusion, and I was wondering whether that condition was in Santa Barbara County?

A · My name was written in a number of times. It was in the primary election, and they thought it had to be written in this election, too.

MR. GELDER · Is it your contention that in precinct No. 3, Santa Maria, had all the election board been present at the time the ballots were counted, you would have had a greater number of votes than you have been actually credited with?

A · I am simply, Mr. Gelder, asking for a recount. I want to show that in the recount.

MR. MEEK · Why did you show this condition—to show the condition of the election board, and that mistakes must have been made because of physical limits?

A · Yes, sir.

MR. WRIGHT · You do not charge any fraud on the part of any election board—you simply cite these cases of physical exhaustion with the possibility, or probability, in your mind of mistakes having occurred through that exhaustion, without any statement as to whether the mistakes would be in your favor or in favor of Mr. Kramer?

A · In this case, no.

MR. MEEK · What is your principal reason for contesting this election—is it because of the narrow margin of votes given you and Mr. Kramer—because that margin is so narrow that it could easily be wiped out?

A · The mistakes necessarily made in the long hours of counting. People going two and a half days without sleep, mind you, are not in physical condition to make correct counts.

Q · The point I am trying to make is this: If there were one thousand votes difference, would you consider the irregularities in precinct eighteen great enough to warrant having a recount?

A · No.

MR. McKNIGHT · Mr. Bagby, is it not possible that a recount might cause the vote to be just the same, your opponent receiving just as many votes in the recount as you?

A · Those things happen in all recounts.

Q · Do you know of any particular that might tend to change that in your favor—I mean any fraud or specific irregularity that you have in mind?

A · No, sir; I am not making any charge of fraud.

Q · Do you know of any specific irregularity that would tend to increase your vote on recount?

A · Nothing more than what I have made already, that they were physically unable to count correctly, as in some precincts they would count votes in a different column—

MR. WRIGHT · As far as your knowledge goes, a recount might increase the lead of Mr. Kramer—as far as any knowledge you have?

A · Yes, sir.

Q · Don't you think it possible and probable, Mr. Bagby, that the conditions you have described in a number of precincts in Santa Barbara have prevailed generally throughout the State of California, on account of the size of the ballot and the length of time?

A · I don't know. I simply know that in the large precincts the length of time it took them to count these votes they could make mistakes.

Q · Do you remember what was the total vote cast in any of those precincts?

A · No I couldn't give it to you.

MR. MEEK · You do know that they were until some time Thursday counting in these precincts?

A · I do.

Q · Did that appear here in your statement—any reference at all to the physical limits of election boards?

A · I don't know whether it does or not.

RULING OF THE CHAIR: Mr. Bagby offered in evidence the affidavit of Walter J. Davies and Elsie M. Davies, the admission of which was objected to by Mr. Kramer, the contestee. The admission of said affidavits was taken under advisement by the committee, the question of their admissibility to be later determined by them in executive session.

TESTIMONY OF IRA EARL KRAMER.

Ira Earl Kramer, being duly sworn, testified in his own behalf as follows:

MR. McKNIGHT Have you any statement to make?

A. I have no statement to make whatever. Mr. Chairman

MR. MEEK Are you willing to have a recount made?

A. Why, I have objected to it, I think, in my answer there, and the only reason I objected is on account of the expense entailed

Q. To you personally or to the State?

A. Both to myself and to the State

MR. GELDER There are some allegations in here, Mr. Kramer, about the irregularities in certain precincts; that is to say, that certain officers—that the returns from certain precincts were not properly authenticated as required by law, and that each of said returns was not signed or authenticated by the election board of such precinct. Do you know that to be true of your own knowledge?

A. I do, yes, sir.

Q. And do you also know that in these certain precincts, the supervisors nevertheless insisting on canvassing the returns and counting the votes, the contestant was given 139 more votes than he was entitled to?

A. My attorney, of course, added this—

Q. But these irregularities you know of your own knowledge?

A. On back of the ballot each officer had to sign and they omitted to do so in some cases. I recognize myself that much that is said about elections in my answer is technical, and I do not wish to take advantage of it, if the committee itself wishes to act on the issues in the complaint.

MR. WRIGHT Did you know, Mr. Kramer, of these cases that were mentioned in the allegations of the contestant, particularly precinct eighteen, where the board was not filled until some time after the opening of the polls?

A. Of course I was not there at the opening of the polls, in that precinct. I knew about it by talking with different members on the board after this notice of contest was filed—no remarks were ever made before that time, and it came as a surprise to me.

Q. Do you know of cases where through physical exhaustion members of the board went home to get refreshments or something, before finishing the count?

A. During this last election do you mean?

Q. Yes, sir

A. Not from my own knowledge.

Q. Yet it is possible?

A. Yes. Any place people have to eat if they are going to work for three days and nights in succession.

MR. McKNIGHT Do you know of any place where the entire board went away, leaving the place alone?

A. Not in this election.

MR. MEEK Who is Page—is he a friend of yours?

A. Yes, sir

Q. What are his politics?

A. Progressive.

Q. You are a Progressive?

A. Yes, sir

Q. Who is Mrs. Turner? Is she a friend of yours?

A. I never got acquainted with Mrs. Turner until after this election. I met her after this notice of contest was served, and talked to her after that—not before.

MR. WILLS It is a fact, Mr. Kramer, that such proceedings as have been represented at the opening of those polls is quite common—isn't it a fact that a great many precincts are not open until eight o'clock, seven o'clock?

A. You mean no one voting between six and eight o'clock?

Q. Yes, sir. Has not that happened in a great many places?

A. Not to my knowledge.

MR. BAGBY, in rebuttal The only statement I wished to make was regarding the court proceedings. If I were a contestant for the office of supervisor or county clerk or as sheriff, or any other office in the county, and were to go to the superior court I would not be refused a recount, and I look upon the legislature as the court, and that is all I am asking of this court, that they simply recount the votes, and, as I said to you the other day, if it is found that Mr. Kramer has a majority of the votes, there isn't a man in Santa Barbara who will stand firmer to his back in regard to legislation in the State of California in general than H. C. Bagby. On the other hand, if I am elected and it is shown that I have a majority of the votes, then and then only will I serve as representative

REPORT OF THE STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

SACRAMENTO, CAL., January 20, 1915.

To the Senat and Assembly of the State of California:

Pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 8, (session 1913)—Relative to training and education of orphan children, the State Board of Education presents the following report

We have secured from various sources information regarding orphan children who are receiving State aid, either in institutions or in homes, and find that the present tendency is strongly in the direction of placing those children in homes rather than in institutions. In 1904, there were 4875 children receiving State aid in public institutions, and 2407 in homes. In 1914, there were 2451 in public institutions, and 4977 in homes. Last year the State extended aid to orphan children to the amount of $170,833.84. It is true that this sum is expended in aid of orphans upon the theory that it is essential for their welfare and upbringing and is not primarily expended for their education. These children, however, are wards of the State. The fact that they are orphans is an initial handicap to them and it would seem to be the duty of the State, therefore, to do whatever may be done in order to give them equal opportunity with the children more fortunately situated. If it be possible, they should be placed in the same position with other children who are commencing life's struggle; and the State should not permit any additional educational handicap to come to them by reason of their orphanage.

We find that in 38 orphan asylums receiving children of school age, the children are sent to the public schools in 19 and instructed in the institutions in the other 19. In the 19 institutions where children are taught by those in charge there is a wide range of efficiency and no uniform standard. In all these institutions the State textbooks are used in whole or in part, but in only four are certificated teachers employed even for a part of the instruction. In some instances the teachers are well equipped and the instruction is on a par with that given in public schools, in other institutions the teachers are not well trained, some of them speaking with such a decidedly foreign accent that it is difficult for children of American parentage to understand them, and the instruction is more or less limited and perfunctory. In 20 institutions instruction is given in some form of vocational education, either supplementary to work in the public schools or independent of it.

Apparently, neither the State Board of Education nor any other educational authority is by law given jurisdiction over the educational affairs of the orphan asylums, and necessarily, therefore, we can only indulge in suggestions for improvement. That this improvement should be made, if possible, will be obvious to all of those who consider alone the interests of the children, and that this improvement should be such as not to send forth orphans for life's work with the additional handicap of educational advantages inferior to those of other children, should be so plain as not to require repetition. The problem presented is as to the suggestion for improvement. The constitution forbids the expenditure of public money for educational work in sectarian institutions. If these children could attend the public schools, they would at least receive what the more fortunate children under parental care have. If those in charge of the children do not desire that they shall attend the public schools, the educational advantages of those institutions should be brought to the standard of the educational advantages of our public schools. This, of course, could be accomplished most readily by the standards of the teachers in such institutions equalling the standards of the teachers in the employment of the State.

The provisions of the Political Code relating to orphans, if the Legislature thought it wise, could be amended so that this State and would be dependent upon the educational advantages to be given to the orphans, and that these educational advantages might be equal to those of other children, a minimum requirement for education in orphan asylums could be fixed.

In the event of the recall of any officer, other than the mayor, the successor of the officer or officers so recalled shall be appointed by the mayor and no confirmation by the common council of such appointment shall be required. In the event of the recall of the mayor and less than a majority of the members of the common council successors to the officers so recalled shall be elected by a majority vote of the common council, provided that no member of the common council whom the electors shall have voted to recall shall be allowed to vote for a successor to himself or to any other officer voted to be recalled.

If by reason of the operation of this section or for any other reason there are not sufficient officers remaining qualified to vote for successors to the officers recalled then a special election for the purpose of electing successors to said officers shall be called by the member or members of the common council whom the electors have not voted to recall, or, in the event there is no such member of the common council said election shall be called by the city clerk and in such event the city clerk is hereby invested, for the purposes of said election, with all of the powers by this charter invested in the common council in respect to the conduct of elections. Such special election shall be conducted in the manner hereinbefore provided for the general municipal election. No officer who has been recalled shall hold office, either appointive or elective, during the remainder of the term for which he was elected.

THE INITIATIVE.

Powers reserved to the people.

SEC. 25. In addition to the powers vested by this charter in the common council, the people reserve to themselves the power to adopt or reject ordinances at the polls independent of the council.

PETITION SHALL CONTAIN PROPOSED ORDINANCES.

SEC. 26. To initiate proceedings for the exercise of said reserved powers, a petition signed by duly qualified electors of the city equal in number to twenty-five per cent of the entire vote cast for all candidates for mayor at the last preceding general municipal election at which a mayor was elected, shall be filed with the city clerk. Said petition shall be addressed to the mayor and common council, shall contain the proposed ordinance set out in full and shall request that the proposed ordinance be submitted forthwith to vote of the people at a special election, or at a general election at the option of those proposing the ordinance.

THE PETITION MAY BE IN TEN SECTIONS.

SEC. 27. To facilitate the procuring of signers, the petition may consist of not exceeding ten separate sections. Any qualified elector may circulate a section for signatures, and each signer shall add to his signature his place of residence, giving the street and number. Each section shall have attached thereto the affidavit of the person who circulated the same for signatures; that all the signatures were made in his presence, and that to the best of his knowledge and belief each signature is the genuine signature of the person whose name it purports to be. The several sections shall each contain a copy of the proposed ordinance, and, at the time of being signed, shall in all respects be counterparts of each other. When filed they shall be attached together and constitute the petition.

VERIFICATION OF THE PETITION.

SEC. 28. Within ten days after such petition is filed, the city clerk shall satisfy himself whether or not the petition contains the requisite number of signers and whether or not the signers are qualified electors of the city and reside at the places set opposite their names respectively. At the conclusion of such examination, the city clerk shall attach to said petition his certificate showing the result of his examination. The common council shall allow the city clerk such extra help in making the examination as may be necessary.

PETITION MAY BE AMENDED.

SEC. 29. If by the certificate it appears that the petition is not signed by the requisite number of duly qualified signers, or is defective in any other particular, it may be amended within ten days from the date of the certificate, by the filing of not exceeding five additional sections duly verified and counterparts, except as to the names of the signers, of the sections on file, containing the requisite number of signatures. The city clerk shall, within five days after such additional sections are filed, make examination of the signatures thereon and attach his certificate to the petitions showing whether or not the petition is still insufficient. If after filing the additional sections, the certificate of the city clerk shows the petition still insufficient, no further proceedings shall be had on the petition on file; but a new petition may, however, be filed to effect the same purpose.

COUNCIL SHALL PASS THE ORDINANCE OR CALL AN ELECTION.

SEC. 30. If the certificate of the city clerk shows the petition sufficient, the council, if a special election is demanded in the petition, within twenty days from the date of the city clerk's certificate showing the sufficiency of the petition, shall either pass such ordinance without alteration, or forthwith call a special election, to be held within forty days after the passage of the ordinance calling the same, and submit said proposed ordinance without alteration to vote of the people.

FIFTEEN PER CENT PETITION.

SEC. 31. If the petition request that the proposed ordinance be submitted to a vote of the people at the next general municipal election, and be signed by qualified electors equal in number to fifteen per centum of the entire vote cast for all candidates for mayor at the last general municipal election at which a mayor was elected, and said ordinance be not passed by the council, as demanded in the petition, then, such ordinance, without alteration, shall be submitted by the common council to a vote of the people at the next general municipal election, provided such election shall occur at any time after twenty days from the date of the city clerk's certificate showing the sufficiency of the petition.

PRINTED ARGUMENTS FOR AND AGAINST THE ORDINANCE

SEC. 32. At any time twenty days prior to the election at which the proposed ordinance is submitted to vote of the people, the proposers of the ordinance and the mayor and common council may respectively present to the city clerk printed arguments favoring or opposing the passage of the proposed ordinance by vote of the people. There shall be only one printed argument on behalf of the proponents of the ordinance, and one on behalf of the mayor and common council, and said arguments shall be contained in not exceeding two hundred words on each printed paper. The form and size of paper shall be suitable for mailing, and shall be prescribed by the city clerk. The number of copies of such printed arguments for each party shall be five per centum in excess of the total number of qualified electors in the city. One copy of each of said arguments shall be mailed by the city clerk with each sample ballot, and with each sample ballot shall also be mailed a printed copy of the proposed ordinance and petition, except the names of the signers to said petition and the certificate of the city clerk shall not be included. The cost of printing the necessary copies of the petition and proposed ordinance shall be borne by the city.

FORM OF THE BALLOT.

SEC. 33. The ballot used when voting on the proposed ordinance shall set forth the title of the ordinance in full, state its general nature, and shall contain the words "For the Ordinance." Opposite such proposition to be voted on, and to the right thereof, the words "Yes" and "No" shall be printed on separate lines with voting squares in which the voter may stamp his cross. If a majority of those voting on such proposed ordinance shall vote in favor thereof, such ordinance shall be deemed adopted, and shall take effect five days after the declaration of the official canvass of the returns of such election.

SEVERAL ORDINANCES MAY BE SUBMITTED TO VOTE OF THE PEOPLE AT THE SAME ELECTION.

SEC. 34. Any number of proposed ordinances may be submitted to vote of the people at the same election. The enacting clause of an ordinance adopted by vote of the people shall be, "The people of the city of San Jose do ordain as follows".

REPEAL OR AMENDMENT OF ORDINANCE

SEC. 35. The common council, at any general municipal election, may, without petition, submit to vote of the people a proposition to amend or repeal any ordinance adopted by vote of the people, or for the enactment of a new ordinance, and in case a majority of the votes cast thereon at such general municipal election be in favor of the proposition submitted, the ordinance shall thereupon be amended or repealed accordingly, and the new ordinance adopted. An ordinance proposed by petition and passed by vote of the people can be repealed or amended only by vote of the people.

CONFLICTING ORDINANCES ADOPTED

SEC. 36. If two or more ordinances adopted at the same election shall contain conflicting provisions, the one adopted by the highest number of votes shall be construed as paramount to the other so far as the particular conflict is concerned.

SEC. 37. The procedure for holding special elections to submit proposed ordinances to vote of the people shall, so far as applicable, be the same as for special election for the recall.

THE REFERENDUM.

SEC. 39. No ordinance passed by the common council shall go into effect before thirty days from the time of its final passage, except where otherwise required by the general laws of the state, or by the provisions of this charter, respecting street improvement or street opening, or respecting matters pertaining to the purchase or sale of lands, or pertaining to elections, or respecting the levying and collection of taxes, or pertaining to bond issues, and except an ordinance for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, which contains a statement of its urgency, and is passed by a four-fifth vote of the common council, provided, that no grant of any franchise shall be construed to be an urgency measure, but all franchises shall be subject to the referendum vote herein provided. The form of the petition, and the mode of verification and certification and filing, shall be substantially, with such modifications as the nature of the case requires, as provided for recall elections.

LONG BEACH, CALIFORNIA, January 20, 1915.

HON. JOSEPH A. ROMINGER, Assembly Chamber, Sacramento, Cal.:

Thirty-five hundred people passed the following resolution tonight

Resolution passed unanimously by mass meeting at Evangelistic service, between three thousand and four thousand being present, on Wednesday night, January 20th, 1915, to be sent to delegation at Sacramento from this district. "This meeting protests against the proposal before the legislature to raise deficit in state revenues by taxing saloons and thereby practically establishing a system of state license. We urge you, as our representatives to use every means in your power to save us from the infamy of making the support of our schools system depend in any measure on a revenue which is made out of the wrecking of young lives. Each book shall consist of some multiple of ten and the numbers shall be consecutive from one to as many as there are ballots, and the names of the candidates thereon shall be printed in rotation so that each candidate for any given office shall in turn occupy each position thereon in numerical order, practically equal to the number of candidates for such office.

Arrangement of ballots.

SEC. 36. The ballots shall be arranged with proper headings above each office or classification of offices, showing the same, the number to be voted for for each office or classification, the names of the candidates therefor arranged in alphabetical order, with sufficient voting squares opposite each name, properly designated "first choice," "second choice" and "third choice" for the several choices provided for in this charter, and with blank line or lines left below the printed names of candidates for each office to be voted for, equal to the number to be voted for, wherein the voter may write the name of any person or persons for whom he may wish to vote. SEC. 43. Should the elector express any of said several choices for more candidates than there are offices to be filled in that particular classification, said choices, so expressed, shall not be counted, and should he express more than one of said several choices for any one candidate, only the first one of said choices, so expressed, shall be counted.

Canvass of returns.

SEC. 44. The city council, at its next regular meeting, shall canvass the returns of said election by totaling the first choice votes for each candidate, and the candidate receiving the largest number of said first choice votes, if such votes constitute a majority of all ballots cast at such election, shall be elected to that office. If no candidate shall receive such a majority of the first choice votes for such office, a canvass shall then be made of the second choice votes received by each candidate and the said second choice votes shall then be added to the first choice votes received by each candidate for such office, and the candidate receiving the largest number of said first and second choice votes, if such votes constitute a majority of all ballots cast at such election, shall be elected thereto. If no candidate shall receive such a majority after adding the first and second choice votes, then a canvass shall be made of the third choice votes received by each candidate and said third choice votes shall then be added to the first and second choice votes received by each candidate, and the candidate receiving the highest number of first, second and third choice votes shall be elected thereto

Tie votes.

SEC. 45. In case of two or more candidates receiving an equal and sufficient number of votes to elect to any office, such election shall be determined in favor of the successful candidate receiving the highest number of first choice votes for such office, and in case such candidate shall receive an equal number of first choice votes for such office, or in case the first choice votes are to determine the question of priority, as provided in sections 18 and 19, and such candidates shall receive an equal number of first choice votes, such election or priority shall be determined in favor of the person who shall receive the greatest number of third choice votes for such office.

The unsuccessful candidate in such method of determining a tie vote shall, however, in the plan of electing candidates where there is more than one such office to be filled, be deemed to have received the highest vote cast for said office next succeeding the successful candidate, and so on with each succeeding highest vote shall all ties for said office be determined, and the candidate shall be entitled to the vote received by him in the order of such determination

If the successful candidate for any office can not be determined by the method hereinbefore provided, then the same shall be determined by lot, conducted by the city council

General election regulations.

SEC. 47. The provisions of the laws of the State of California relating to the qualifications of electors, and to elections, not fully provided for in this charter, nor inconsistent therewith, or repugnant thereto, which can be made applicable, shall govern all municipal elections.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Rominger arose to a question of personal privilege, and spoke as follows:

Mr. Speaker In the issue of the Los Angeles Times of January 23, 1915, an article appeared under the heading "Offer bribe to Rominger," "Holdup of Long Beach charter explained," "Southern Assemblyman told he would have to take orders if he ever expects to get his bill passed by the Johnson-Finn political machine." The article quotes me in effect as saying that Senator Cogswell told me that it was my attitude toward the Progressives that was holding back the confirmation of Long Beach charter and that if I "would come into the non-partisan camp all opposition would promptly cease." I wish to state that all the foregoing is absolutely and unqualifiedly false. I never at any time charged to Senator Cogswell the statements attributed to me—furthermore Senator Cogswell has never approached me upon the subject of the Long Beach charter since its introduction by me in this house. It is not true as stated in the said article that the Progressives (or anyone else for that matter) "tried to force me into the non-partisan camp by holding up the charter."

It is true that I felt aggrieved that I was not able to get my bill back to and passed through the Assembly before the similar measure passed the Senate and came to this House and I believed that the machinery of the House was being designedly clogged to hold up my bill. I have, since sending a certain telegram to the Long Beach Telegram, published in the San Francisco Chronicle of January 23, 1915, fully investigated the situation and am fully convinced that this suspicion and belief upon my part is absolutely without foundation and that the statements therein made were made upon a misapprehension of the facts. I make this statement not only in a spirit of manly fairness to Senator Cogswell and to the administration and both branches of this legislature, but in fairness to myself.

In the issue of the San Francisco Examiner of Sunday, January 24, 1915, Senator Cogswell is quoted as saying that I "have always been an enemy of the Long Beach charter." This statement is absolutely untrue. I did vote against said charter but, upon its ratification by the city of Long Beach, accepted the charter as the will of the people and have done and am now doing all that I can to further its adoption. Senator Cogswell informs me that he did not at any time make the above remark attributed to him in that article.

Various members asked permission to ask questions of Mr. Rominger, on the alleged interview.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. Brown, Henry Ward, rose to the following point of order:

"That it was out of order for any member to interrogate another member upon a question of personal privilege"

POINT OF ORDER WELL TAKEN.

The Speaker ruled the point of order well taken.

MOTION.

Mr. Wright, T. M., moved that a committee of five be appointed to investigate the correctness of the alleged interview.

MOTION WITHDRAWN.

Mr. Wright, T. M., asked for and was granted unanimous consent to withdraw motion.

SENATE MESSAGES.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE.

The following explanation of vote was presented, and ordered printed in the Journal:

MR. SPEAKER: In voting as I did upon Senate Bill No. 24, the "Revenue and Taxation" measure, I was prompted by the conviction that the system of taxation now in vogue in this State is without basis of reason, justice or equity, that the principle underlying this measure fails to take into account community created and community owned values that are available for, and should be the basis of, our taxation system, and substitutes for a definite, certain and easily ascertained basis one that is fluctuating and uncertain.

Further, I was actuated by the honest conviction that a system which differentiates between the power of the legislature to increase the rate of taxation imposed upon public service corporations, and its power to increase the rate of taxation imposed upon individual taxpayers, is inequitable and unwarranted.

HENRY HAWSON.

The said committee shall report the day of presentation to the Governor, which time shall be carefully entered on the Journal of the House in which the bill originated.

HISTORY OF BILLS, RESOLUTIONS AND CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

25 Each house shall cause to be printed on Monday of each week, during the session, a complete history of all bills, joint or concurrent resolutions and constitutional amendments originating in, or acted upon by the respective houses.

Such history shall show the action taken upon each measure up to and including the legislative day preceding its issuance. The question shall be thus stated: "Shall this section setting forth the urgency features of this bill be passed?" If upon such final vote two thirds of all the members elected to the House in which the vote is being taken shall not vote in the affirmative, no further action shall be taken on the bill; but, in case an identical bill without such an emergency clause be again introduced into such House, such bill shall be placed on file without reference to any committee.

By the Chief Clerk:

WATSONVILLE, January 25, 1915

MR. L. B. MALLORY, Chief Clerk Assembly, Sacramento.

MY DEAR SIR: I can not express in words the appreciation of my mother and myself, for the resolutions adopted in memory of my brother, Thomas G. Walker. My mother desires me to state that it is "her dearest possession," and to "thank the kind hearts that prompted the same", and "proud to think, and know, he had the esteem and friendship of so many representative men".

Believe me I am sincerely yours,

JAMES F. WALKER

Also:

By Mr. Hawson:

COATINGA, CAL., January 26, 1915.

HON. HENRY HAWSON, State Legislature, Sacramento, Cal.

DEAR SIR: Upon learning that it is proposed to fix an annual tax upon saloons, to provide for a shortage in State revenues, the Coalinga Presbyterian Brotherhood, called a special meeting to consider this question and at that meeting, held January 24, 1915, it was voted to ask our Senator and our Assemblymen to use their influence against any measure of this kind, as it will be virtually a license for the saloon.

Feeling that we can trust you in this matter, we are,

Yours very sincerely,

COALINGA PRESBYTERIAN BROTHERHOOD,

By J H STACEY, President

Also:

By Mr. Meek:

OROVILLE, January 25, 1915

To the Honorable Body of Assemblymen

We the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Oroville do petition that you do not pass any law whereby the State shall tax the saloons or whereby the State shall receive revenue from the saloons.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. MARTHA VOORHEES, President

Also:

OROVILLE, CAL., January 25, 1915.

To the Honorable Members of the California Assembly

GENTLEMEN. As one who has worked for over twenty years, in Solano, Napa and Butte counties, to offset the evil results of the open saloon upon many homes and families of this State, and being thoroughly convinced, thru observation and investigation, that the saloon is a menace to the prosperity of any community, not only morally but financially,—the costs far exceeding any revenue,—therefore I do pray and petition that no law be passed by your honorable body, taxing saloons for State revenue.

It is plainly most inconsistent to teach in our schools the evil effects of alcoholic liquors and at the same time not only permit and license their sale, but use revenue from them for school expenses.

Respectfully,

MRS. LILIAN BIRMINGHAM GRAY,

President of the Butte County Woman's Christian Temperance Union

Also:

OROVILLE, CALIFORNIA, January 25, 1915.

To the Members of the Assembly, California Legislature.

GENTLEMEN: The following resolution has been adopted by the Oroville Anti-Saloon League and I have been instructed to forward same to you:

"We, the members of the Oroville Anti-Saloon League, hereby protest against any legislation which has for its object the taxing of saloons for the purpose of providing State revenue."

W. B. HENGY, Secretary.

Also:

OROVILLE, CAL January 25, 1915

To the Honorable Members of the Assembly of the State of California, Sacramento, Cal.

GENTLEMEN The following resolution was adopted at a called meeting of the Oroville Dry Federation held January 24, 1915.

"Be it resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that we protest against the adoption of any bills fixing a license tax on saloons, for State revenue; or taking control of the liquor business out of the hands of city and county authorities, and placing the same in the hands of a State Commission, or under State control entirely"

Very truly yours,

OROVILLE DRY FEDERATION.

FRED H. GRAY, President

E. D. BRERETON, Secretary.

Also

OROVILLE, CAL., January 25, 1915.

To the Honorable Members of the State Assembly, Sacramento, Cal.

FIRST METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF OROVILLE.

PETITIONS.

The following petitions were presented and ordered printed in the Journal:

By Mr. Wishard:

LOS ANGELES, CAL., January 21, 1915.

To the Honorable Members of the State Senate and Assembly, Capitol Building, Sacramento, Cal

GENTLEMEN: At an executive committee meeting of the Board of Directors of the N. E. W. Commercial and Improvement Association held on Saturday, January 16, 1915, it was unanimously voted that the State Senate and Assembly of California, now in session, be urged to adopt the following resolution immediately:

Resolved, That the matter of the establishment of a coordinate State University in Southern California be referred to a special committee of seven with instructions to report upon the subject in all its bearings, at the close of the thirty day recess.

Yours sincerely,

N. E. W. COMMERCIAL AND IMPROVEMENT ASS'N.,

J. MILES DAVIES, Secretary-Treasurer.

By Mr. Meek:

To the Hon. Hiram W. Johnson, Governor, and the Members of the Legislature of California.

We, the following named pastors and officers of the various churches in Gridley, believe that the proposed State license and tax upon saloons, if enacted into law, would be detrimental to the best interests and general welfare of California, the evil effects of which would be farreaching.

We most heartily endorse the proposed change in the Wyllie Local Option Law, making the county the unit for action instead of the incorporated cities and supervisorial districts outside of such cities, and most respectfully urge that such change be made in the law.

We are confident that we not only represent in this statement the wishes of the members of our respective churches, but a very large portion of the citizens of this community, irrespective of their church affiliations.

W. S. PRYSE,

Pastor Presbyterian Church.

RICHARD JENKINS,

Elder, Presbyterian Church

Rev. HOMER GALLAHER,

Pastor United Brethren Church.

R. H. WIGHTMAN,

Pastor M. E. Church.

SEC. 158. Construction work under any franchise granted, shall be commenced in good faith within not more than four months from the date of the taking effect of the ordinance granting such franchise, and if not so commenced within said time, said franchise shall be forfeited. By Mr Speaker:

SAN FRANCISCO, January 26, 1915.

HON C C. YOUNG AND MEMBERS OF THE ASSEMBLY, Sacramento, California.

GENTLEMEN: On Thursday morning, January 28th, a Coroner's jury and I will be called upon to hold an inquest into the deaths of certain Chinese, evidently murdered as the result of factional differences between rival tongs or societies. Whether these murders were committed directly by certain members of the tongs or by assassins or gunmen employed for the purpose by the officers and members of the tongs we will try to determine.

The mere question as to who these decedents are, and in what manner and when and where they came to their deaths—the circumstances surrounding their deaths—whether a crime has been committed in the cases and who is guilty thereof as principals or accessories—are perfunctory questions to be determined by Coroner and jury.

Yet there is a higher function of Coroner and jury—that of determining not only these facts but of recommending, as a result of the lesson derived from the investigation and study of the facts, means for the prevention, of future similar acts. Among the duties of Coroner and jury are recommendatory legislation for the correction of evils—hence my communication to you, gentlemen.

The importance of the question, and why an endeavor should be made at this time to settle it at once and for all time, I shall not in this letter enter into, as I shall enclose our verdict in a former case, the result of a most careful and exhaustive investigation by a special jury composed of most respected and intelligent business men of San Francisco. I would request that you, sirs—and each and every member of your legislative body—read their verdict and recommendation very carefully and give to the serious question of these murderous tongs the investigation and legislation it deserves. To quote from the verdict, the Chinese Consul, when asked to recommend a remedy, suggested placing the matter entirely in the hands of our officials, advising us to make new laws, enforce the present ones and generally claiming that the remedy ought to be easy and lies in our own hands—that "in other countries, viz. in England Australia and other British possessions where the laws are more stringent they have no similar difficulties—the tongs being a purely American organization."

Following our investigation came a change in the Federal administration, the incumbent United States District Attorney who thoroughly understood the question and who had assisted very materially in the inquiry, was removed. This, together with other events supervening convinced me that it would be futile at that time to endeavor to arouse interest or obtain action. It also seemed that the fear occasioned by the investigation had ended the matter for all time. We now know that such was not the case and a repetition of their crimes once more makes the time opportune for decisive action.

Should your honorable body desire to take up the matter for solution I will be glad to furnish you with a transcript of all evidence taken at the time and to assist you in any way you may desire.

Trusting that you will believe me to be only one of many citizens of this state who honestly desire to see this tong evil eradicated and that you will not consider that I have overstepped my official function in thus addressing you, I remain,

Very respectfully yours,

THOS. B. W. LELAND,

Coroner of the City and County of San Francisco

STATE OF CALIFORNIA,

City and County of San Francisco,) ss.

Inquisition taken at the Coroner's office, on the eighth, ninth, eleventh, fifteenth, twenty-third and twenty-fourth days of April, 1913, before Dr. T. B. W. Leland, Coroner of said city and county, upon view of the body of Lee Sing, then and there lying dead, upon the oath of nine jurors, good and lawful men of the city and county, who being duly summoned and sworn to inquire into all the circumstances attending the death of the said Lee Sing, and by whom the same was produced, and in what manner and when and where the said Lee Sing came to his death, do say upon their oath aforesaid,

That the said Lee Sing, male, yellow, aged 55 years, nativity China, married, occupation laborer, residence 710 Sacramento Street, came to his death at the Harbor Emergency Hospital on April 1, 1913, from shock and hemorrhage following gunshot wound of chest and abdomen,

And we further find:

From our investigation that the murder of Lee Sing is the outgrowth of trouble existing between certain so-called tongs in San Francisco, that the trouble itself was trivial in nature, originating in an ordinary street brawl in Chinatown in which a member of one tong slapped the face of a member of another tong, that this renewed a feud which had been slumbering for the past two years and had originated over the stealing of a slave girl and resulted in the loss of some seventeen lives. The present trouble led to a renewal of hostilities, negotiations for the settlement of which failing, the aggrieved tong through its members and officers decided to avenge the apparent injury by the wholesale murder of members of the opposing tong. This led to reprisals on the part of their rivals, and up to the present time the Bing Kong tong men have murdered four Sney Sing tong men and the Sney Sing tong men have murdered five Bing Kong tong men.

We learn from our investigation that the organization of the so-called tong was the product of the evil mind and genius of a wily Chinese well known in San Francisco as "Little Pete;" that it was created originally for evil purposes, namely, blackmail and murder to secure control of the gambling interests in Chinatown and for the purpose of obtaining control of the police, witnesses, jurors, judges and other officials with whom their evil doings might bring them in contact. That said Little Pete was eminently successful in his organization has been evidenced in the past by the downfall of a long series of officers. Although his plans met with success they eventually led to his downfall, as he finally was murdered by members of a similar rival organization. Since the days of Little Pete many Chinese have attempted to duplicate his efforts and success, and the present condition is a result of ambition on the part of these Chinese to acquire similar power and wealth gained by Little Pete. It is one of the evil spots in the history of San Francisco and has cost the city unbelievable amounts of money and the needless sacrifice of human lives. Attempts have been made from time to time to suppress the tongs, most of the efforts, however, having been directed towards temporary measures such as terrifying the inhabitants of Chinatown during the height of the tong activities; their meeting places which had developed into gorgeous clubrooms for the pleasure of their members between wars were raided and thousands of dollars worth of furnishings destroyed. Wholesale arrests and all sorts of temporary expedients were used but without avail. Our civic authorities have been unable to cope with the situation, and at the present time the Chinese have absolutely no respect either for our civic authorities or our laws. The fear of the wrath of their own tongs is greater than the fear or respect they have for our laws. Our own people, through the frequent occurrence of these so-called wars and notwithstanding the number of murders attendant upon them, have become apathetic and do not look upon the crimes with the feeling of horror which the crimes deserve. Our officials have become content with seeking out the actual perpetrators of the crimes, arresting the hired assassins when they can be found and convicting or dismissing them, according to whether the evidence shows them guilty or innocent—no attempt being made to reach the actual instigators of the crimes, the tongs themselves, or their officers.

We, the jury in this case, citizens and business men of San Francisco, are determined that something must and will be done to bring to a definite end this blot upon our city. We realize in the existence of this evil that there is more than the mere question of the continued murder of members of a foreign population. We find that these feuds are costing the city and county of San Francisco a sum ranging from fifty to seventy-five thousand dollars annually, and there is also the withdrawing of a large force of our police officers from duties which they could be fulfilling elsewhere.

These tongs are really conducting and promoting schools of crime. While the American born Chinese, on account of his contact with the best of our western civilization, should be an improvement upon his race and a credit to the country in which he is born, with the consequent uplifting effect of such association upon the people of his Fatherland, the American born Chinese is so dominated by the evil influence of the tong that he is educated to look upon their murderous customs as proper. He is taught a disrespect for our institutions and our laws; he is so dominated by the fear of these murderous tongs that it has become customary in San Francisco to expect a Chinese, no matter of what caste, to deliberately perjure himself before our courts and officials when called upon to testify as between the law and the tongs.

Without going deeper into this moral issue which affects the entire Chinese community, it will be readily seen that this issue is even greater than the mere financial one. The American born tong man, both by the Chinese themselves and our public officials, is acknowledged to be the worst type of criminal developed by the system. We find in every witness examined, from the most humble Chinese up to the Consul-General himself, an unwillingness and fear to assist the investigation in any possible manner; all express a sincere desire to rid the city and themselves of the incubus, but are absolutely unwilling and afraid even to suggest a true solution of the difficulty. The Consul-General himself suggests placing the matter entirely in the hands of our officials, advising us to make new laws, enforce the present ones and generally claiming that the remedy ought to be easy and lies in our hands. An unofficial suggestion is made that deportation is more feared by the Chinese than the risk of conviction of the crime of murder with its consequences. The Consul also informs us that in other countries, namely, in England and Australia and other English possessions, where the laws are more stringent they have no similar difficulties—the tong being a purely American organization.

We have examined many witnesses in the progress of our investigation, namely, the United States District Attorney John L. McNab, an able and fearless official willing to do all in his power to eradicate this evil; also Dr. John E. Gardner, Federal Immigration Inspector, whom we also find to be an intelligent, painstaking official, evidently well informed on the situation, who in our opinion gave the best suggestions in regard to the control of the situation. These suggestions are a matter of record and will be available to those interested in the investigation. We also interrogated Chief of Police White and Captain of Detectives Mooney, also Detective Sergeant Arthur MacPhee assigned to detective duty in Chinatown (who assisted us materially) in our investigation, ex-Detective George W. T. McMahon, stationed for sixteen years in Chinatown, District Attorney Fickert and Police Commissioner Jesse B. Cook formerly sergeant of police, also ex-chief of police; Mr. Oliver Dibble, attorney for one of the Chinese tongs; Yee Yick Yin, President of the Chinese Six Companies; Gee Sing Sam, Secretary of the Chinese Six Companies; and Li Yeun, Chinese Consul-General at San Francisco.

From our civil authorities we could obtain nothing but a recognition of the existence of the evil and acknowledgment of their inability to eradicate it. Our general conclusions as a result of the investigation are that unless some radical steps are taken the evil will continue to exist and will probably grow in the face of the efforts that are now being made on the part of our local officials to prevent it. That the evil is growing is evidenced by the fact that the Chinese murderers are becoming more bold as time passes; formerly their operations were restricted to the Chinese quarter and committed by means of modern weapons such as powerful automatic repeating revolvers, and during the present tong war rifles are being used, generally fired from windows or housetops, with the consequent greater ability of the murderer to escape without capture by the police. The last tong war murder was committed in broad daylight in the business section of the city in the doorway of a restaurant crowded with white patrons—in this instance an innocent white man, a pedestrian, was shot.

It has been testified to and is a matter of record that the Chinese have been engaged in actual target practice in the county of San Mateo at the Chinese cemetery, that they are perfecting themselves in the art of shooting, and we believe for no other purpose than to become expert in the use of modern weapons for tong purposes, with probable murderous intent. We recommend that the matter of target practice be called to the attention of the authorities of San Mateo county so that the actual intent of the parties concerned may be determined by said officials.

We feel that if the conditions are to be controlled much stronger measures must be used and an appeal made to the very highest authorities whose active interest may be requested. We believe that a continued, concerted and united effort on the part of our Federal, State and municipal authorities with the great power at their command would result in the eradication of the evil; that its existence depends upon the fear that the Chinese have of their own tongs as against the fear of the consequences of the violation of our laws. At the present time the balance is in favor of the tong as against the constituted authorities. We find that we have two classes to deal with, the foreign born element which evidently can be controlled by the Federal authorities, and the American born element which can be reached by the State and municipal authorities. By a strong combination and cooperation of the Federal, State and municipal authorities, we feel that the evil may be overcome. We would strongly recommend that effort be made to bring about a union of these forces to the end and the direction of the warfare upon the tongs be concentrated in some head officially authorized with the management of this campaign of the eradication. To this end we direct that the coroner communicate with Secretary of State William J. Bryan at Washington, D. C., directing his attention to this evil as existing in San Francisco, that he be made fully aware of all the phases of it; that transcripts of this testimony or portions of it concerning this particular issue be forwarded to him with the request that he take up the matter with the representatives of the Chinese government at Washington, and that he be requested to direct that all the powers of the Federal authorities in the State of California and other states where these tongs exist be directed to use their most strenuous efforts to attack the evil with the idea of eradicating it once and for all, that in like manner the services of Governor Hiram W. Johnson of California be enlisted so that if the present laws governing this situation are inefficient, laws may be enacted by the California State Legislature which will cover the deficiency; that the municipal authorities be requested to give this matter the active attention which it deserves.

We recommend that this matter be brought to the attention of the representatives from California at Washington.

We desire to enlist the personal efforts and activities of his honor, Mayor James Rolph, Jr.; that if his personal services can be enlisted upon the subject at issue he may be able, as the executive officer of this city, to so arouse public sentiment and the activities of his officials and commissioners that definite results may be accomplished. Some one connected with the city government must take an active directing interest in the matter. We realize that our duties as jurors in the case will terminate with the rendering of this verdict. We therefore appeal to Mayor Rolph to take this matter actively in hand he being the one who has the necessary power to stimulate into action the various officials necessary to bring about the desired results.

We, the jury, very heartily commend the zeal of Coroner T. B. W. Leland in his efforts, he taking the initiative in making a thorough investigation into the causes and endeavoring to find some solution of this serious problem.

We have given this problem much serious consideration and know that our time and efforts will not have been wasted if the present blot upon the name of our fair city can be removed. It can and will be done and only requires earnest and concerted effort. We trust that our request for active measures in this regard from all the authorities concerned will meet with the success which we expect.

We further find that said Lee Sing came to his death from gunshot wounds of chest and abdomen, received at the hands of one Yee Lick, that said gunshot wounds were inflicted by said Yee Lick with intent to commit murder, and we hereby charge the said Yee Lick with the crime of murder. That said Yee Lick was employed to commit this murder by a Chinese secret society known as the Bing Kong Tong; that the commission of said murder was ordered by the membership of said tong acting through the president and secretary, and we hereby charge the individual members of the Bing Kong Tong, and president and secretary with the crime of murder and direct, in accordance with this verdict, that the coroner issue warrants throughout the several counties of the State of California for the arrests of each and every member of said tong.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, as well as the said Coroner the jurors aforesaid have to this inquisition set their hands and seals on the date thereof.

Charles Myer, foreman; Isaac Goodman, Frank Woerner, F. A. McKenzie, Monroe Marks, Jesse Coleman, Chas. E. Daly, Angelo Rossi, Louis A. Gould, Thos. I. Dillion.

Inquisition taken at the Coroner's office on the 28th day of January, 1915, before Dr. T. B. W. Leland, Coroner of said City and County, upon view of the body of Chew You, then and there lying dead, upon the oath of nine jurors, good and lawful men of the City and County, who being duly summoned and sworn to inquire into all the circumstances attending the death of the said Chew You and by whom the same was produced, and in what manner and when and where the said Chew You came to his death, do say upon their oath aforesaid:

That the said Chew You, male, yellow, nativity China, aged about 45 years, occupation gardener, came to his death on arrival at Central Emergency Hospital on January 24, 1915, from shock and hemorrhage following gunshot wounds of chest and abdomen:

And we further find: That said deceased came to his death at the hands of parties unknown to the jury.

Owing to the fact that the deaths of these two Chinese, Chew You and Quong Quack Wah, follow so closely upon an exhaustive investigation of a former case by Coroner Leland and a jury, we, the present jury, having familiarized ourselves with the recommendations in that case, do repeat their recommendations and urge upon the Governor of this State and the present Legislature immediate and definite action thereon. We further recommend that if our Governor and Legislature find themselves unable to cope with the situation they call upon the Federal authorities to assist them. We also direct Coroner Leland to communicate with the Federal officials in an endeavor to arouse their interest and obtain action to suppress this disgraceful evil.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, as well as the said Coroner, the jurors aforesaid have to this inquisition set their hands and seals on the date thereof.

Inquisition taken at the Coroner's office on the 28th day of January, 1915, before Dr. T. B. W. Leland, Coroner of said City and County, upon view of the body of Quong Quack Wah, then and there lying dead, upon the oath of nine jurors, good and lawful men of the City and County, who being duly summoned and sworn to inquire into all the circumstances attending the death of the said Quong Quack Wah and by whom the same was produced, and in what manner and when and where the said Quong Quack Wah came to his death, do say upon their oath aforesaid:

That the said Quong Quack Wah, male, yellow, nativity China, residence 742 1/2 Washington Street, came to his death at the Central Emergency Hospital on January 24, 1915, from shock and hemorrhage following gunshot wound of spine and abdomen:

And we further find: That said deceased came to his death at the hands of parties unknown to the jury.

Owing to the fact that the deaths of these two Chinese, Chew You and Quong Quack Wah, follow so closely upon an exhaustive investigation of a former case by Coroner Leland and a jury, we, the present jury, having familiarized ourselves with the recommendations in that case, do repeat their recommendations and urge upon the Governor of this State and the present Legislature immediate and definite action thereon. We further recommend that if our Governor and Legislature find themselves unable to cope with the situation they call upon the Federal authorities to assist them. We also direct Coroner Leland to communicate with the Federal officials in an endeavor to arouse their interest and obtain action to suppress this disgraceful evil.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, as well as the said Coroner, the jurors aforesaid have to this inquisition set their hands and seals on the date thereof.

Clarence de Veuve, R. V. Kennedy, Geo. B. Sheldon, R. C. Deyoe, J. H. Haskins, Murat W. Stopes, R. L. Smith, H. E. Chandler, Chas. Gombia.

Approved: THOS. B. W. LELAND, Coroner.
